We want the very best person for this position. If you are dynamic, hard-working, believe in high standards and that all children and young people can 'reach for the stars and achieve their dreams' we would love you to come and join us on our journey to be excellent in all that we do!

Person Specification for Current Opportunities at The Regis School

Successful candidates will possess the following attributes:

- Demonstrate ability to be an outstanding teacher or a strongly 'good' teacher/educational support member, with clear capacity to improve
- Clear potential to progress in their career
- Possession of a wide range of skills to support staff, students, parents and community towards absolute excellence
- The skills, experience and ability to gain the confidence of students and staff
- Professional presence, capability and clarity with an excellent demonstration of the ability to motivate and empower
- A clear sense of fun, energy, drive and passion
- A willingness to innovate and operate outside of the 'normal' expectations of a school
- A desire to be 'the best' and the ability to translate an aspiration to be the best
- The ability to demonstrate engagement of children, manage their behaviour, attitudes and aspirations, whilst maintaining an un-erring high expectation and focus upon mutually respectful positive relationships
- Excellent knowledge of effective strategies to raise achievement and excellence in teaching and learning

We know this amazing profession can be challenging and only want people who are positive and dedicated to ensuring children's' lives are enriched by an excellent education.
If your glass is 'half empty' you are not the right person for The Regis School.

If you would like a meeting or conversation with the Principal, Mike Garlick, please contact Mrs Brakefield, his PA, at jbrakefield@theregisschool.co.uk
He would be very keen to talk to you!
