

Meols Cop High School

'Inclusive Excellence For ALL'

Mathematics classroom teacher skills, experience and professional qualities and knowledge

[to be addressed in your letter of application and followed up at interview]

Essential	Desirable
Personal qualities
Team worker able to collaborate, contribute and share	Experience of team teaching or collaborative approach
Never afraid to seek advice and apply it
Able to analyse, evaluate and improve own performance
Able to work independently and demonstrate initiative
Open minded and responsive to change
Prepared to take risks and learn from mistakes
Can prioritise and organise
Can work exceedingly hard, meet deadlines and maintain a work-life balance
Subject/learning and teaching
Good honours subject specific degree and qualified teacher status	Use of data for intervention and the ability to measure its impact
Always seeking to challenge, enthuse and inspire students out of their comfort zone	Awareness of special needs, Asperger's and dyslexic students
Knowledge of present and future subject curriculum changes	Member of subject organisation or learning and teaching group
Strategise and evaluate new methods of teaching and learning for fluency, problem-solving and mastery.
Passion for active research into education.
Outstanding teacher placement/observation
Ability to plan varied and differentiated inclusive lessons

Meols Cop High School

'Inclusive Excellence For ALL'

Able to plan and teach to match personalised student targets and levels [and exceed them!]
Ability to plan and teach KS3 and G.C.S.E. mathematics
Use ICT interactively
Whole curriculum
Up to date pedagogical knowledge	Knowledge of Prevent, SMSC and British Values
Contribute to whole school initiatives outside of your subject and incorporate them into your teaching e.g. research	Student voice and parental engagement activities
Pro-active learning tutor and member of duty team	Extra curricular support
Committed to the vision of our learning community	Potential contribution to college specialism