THE ENGLISH & MEDIA DEPARTMENT

There are currently twelve specialist teachers of English and Media within the department, with most classrooms grouped together. The department maintains its position as one of the highest achieving in the school as well as working towards new, exciting and forward thinking practice.

The English area also comprises the English staffroom, a facility which encourages a 'team feeling' within the department. This team ethos is vital to the effective working of the department. Strong self-evaluation and internal supportive monitoring are carried out regularly and is seen as a motivational tool by the department. We are committed to ongoing development and improvement

Students at KS3 are grouped into mixed ability bands and are set at KS4. All students are entered for both GCSE English Language and English Literature and follow the AQA specification. Media Studies and Film Studies are both GCSE options following the AQA and WJEC specifications. The department prides itself on its good record in external examinations, at Key Stage 3, Key Stage 4 and Key Stage 5 where results are consistently above the national average. At KS5 we offer A-Levels in English Language, English Literature and Media Studies.

New schemes of work have been written at Key Stage 3 and follow the revised Framework and prepare the students for the new GCSE specification. Likewise, we are already prepared for 'Life without Levels' and all our new KS3 Schemes of Work are underpinned by the new KS4 Assessment Objectives for reading and writing. The department have also recently developed cross curricular lessons which focus on embedding the transferrable literacy skills. We also run a number of extra-curricular activities for students, including English Club and half termly English House competitions.

A booking system allows access to computer suites. All classrooms are equipped with projectors, interactive whiteboards and computers allowing the use of video, power point and the display of students' work through 'magic eye' cameras. Likewise, fortnightly library lessons for Key Stage 3 classes are timetabled in our new library which is central to the English department.

The English Department at Hazel Grove High School is a very friendly, highly motivated, high achieving team. Our results at KS4 and KS5 are above average and we are committed to ongoing development and improvement. KS4 and KS5 Media Studies results are also well-above National average. Both curriculum areas share resources, ideas and good practice.
