Letter from the Headteacher

Dear Applicant

As Headteacher of Gunnersbury Catholic School I would like to extend a very warm welcome to you.

This is a fantastic time to join Gunnersbury Catholic School. The talents of our leadership, teachers and the superb student body has culminated in our school being ranked in the Top 5 of Boys' Comprehensive Schools in the country for GCSE attainment (DfE Performance Tables 2016). Our 2016 cohort achieved 89% 5A*-C GCSEs including English and Mathematics and a 'Progress 8' score of +0.56. Similarly at A-level we enable outstanding outcomes for our students. The appetite for success that our pupils possess, their Catholic values and superb behaviour allied to the supportive colleagues and leaders at Gunnersbury make this a great place to work and take your career on to the next level.

We seek a dedicated, talented and enthusiastic teacher of History to be a key member within our History Department. If you have a passion for the subject and a desire to enable students to receive the very best History teaching then we would like to hear from you. Furthermore if you are ambitious to develop your professionalism then this role at Gunnersbury Catholic School will swiftly and thoroughly prepare you to take responsibility within the department. As a member of the team you will receive training, coaching and development of the highest quality, enabling you to develop in your career and become a leader within the school. Developing our staff is key to what we do at Gunnersbury Catholic School as we understand that progressing staff ensures great job satisfaction and learning of the highest quality for our pupils.

Within our school we have been able to create a unique setting. Ours is a school within which students take pride in succeeding, where the pupils strive to achieve the very highest and where there is an unrelenting desire to do even better. At Gunnersbury Catholic School successes and achievements in all spheres are proudly celebrated by the boys. We are a busy, thriving and ambitious school. Gunnersbury's academic achievement has been acknowledged by the Fischer Family Trust as being amongst the top 1% in the country. Year after year government schools' ministers have acknowledged our GCSE success as being amongst the top 100 schools nationally. Ofsted and the Diocese of Westminster have both determined that we are an outstanding school. We pride ourselves on our academic success, achievements that provide entry for our students to world leading universities and high quality careers.

There is however even more to a Gunnersbury education. We enable our students to develop in all aspects of their person: spiritual, moral, sporting, artistic and social. Gunnersbury moulds fully rounded individuals ready to take their place in and make a difference to society. More so, Gunnersbury strives to and succeeds in developing young adults equipped to take their place as leaders in an ever-changing world.

Applications are welcome from individuals of all religions who will support the Catholic ethos of our school. Ultimately if you are someone who seeks to reach for the highest in all that you do, Ad Altiora, then we would like to hear from you.

I look forward to receiving your application.

With kind regards.

Kevin S Burke
Headteacher

The Role

The History teacher role is integral to Gunnersbury's provision of superb teaching and achievement within the subject. Working under the direction of the Head of History the new postholder shall seek to further the learning experience and outcomes of our students.

Teaching

- Ensure that individual lessons are planned, well prepared and take account of the ability of individual groups. Teachers must demand the highest standards from pupils in all areas, including classwork, homework, behaviour, attitude, organisation and presentation.
- Create an effective learning environment for all pupils, maintaining high standards of behaviour and ensuring that rooms are a pleasant place to study.
- Regularly set and mark appropriate work for pupils in order to assess progress and understanding. When marking and assessing, teachers should follow the agreed departmental policies.
- Keep a record of work and records of assessment as outlined in the school and departmental handbooks. They must be prepared to provide information on individual pupil progress based on school target data at required by the Head of Department, other teaching staff and parents.
- Attend and positively contribute to discussions in departmental meetings and take a full part in the development of departmental policies, schemes of work, assessment programmes and examinations, in consultation with the Head of Department.
- Attend appropriate parents' consultation evenings, well-prepared to discuss pupils' work and to provide assessment of individual pupils as and when required.
- Participate in regular self review and evaluation, attending appropriate training days as part of your ongoing professional development.
- In planning units of work and individual lessons, teachers should keep in mind the requirements of the Exam Boards and department Schemes of work and ensure that the curriculum is accessible to all students.
- Contribute towards extra-curricular activities.
- Attend to all duties as directed by the headteacher.

The above characteristics and details of the role are not exhaustive. Rather they represent a guide to the requirements of the job. Furthermore the job description/requirements are subject to regular review and may change over time.

The Department

The History Department of Gunnersbury Catholic Boys School aims to provide the best possible History education for all our pupils. In addition, the Department is dedicated to providing an enjoyable, exciting History learning experience. All the resources of the Department are focused toward this end. The History Department currently consists of 5 teachers.

The History Curriculum is designed to combine the best traditional learning with new technology and new initiatives. We aim to make learning exciting, relevant and enjoyable and to help provide students with historical and intellectual skills.

Schemes of work and Syllabi

We follow a varied scheme of Work in Key Stage 3. All core topics are studied, plus in-depth studies on Industry and the British Empire, Slavery and its abolition, and the First World War. Our overarching theme is the change and nature of Warfare and Technology.

At GCSE we follow the Edexcel (9-1) History Specification. Our chosen units are:

Paper 1: British Thematic Study – Crime and Punishment in Britain c1000-present

Paper 2: Period Study: Super Power Relations 1941-1991
Henry VIII and his ministers

Paper 3: Modern Depth Study – Weimar and Nazi Germany 1918-39

At AS and A2 Level, we currently follow the AQA Syllabus and the units we have chosen are:

AS Level: Unit 1

The Tudors: England 1485-1547

Unit 2

The Cold War c1945-1962

A2 Level: Unit 1

The Tudors: England 1485-1603

Unit 2

The Cold War c1945-1991

Unit 3 Coursework

The struggle to obtain equality for Black Americans after emancipation (1865-1968) in the USA

All KS3 classes have two, 50 minute lessons of History a week, while in KS4 students have three lessons of 50 minutes per week. Year 12 students have 5 and Year 13 have six, 50 minute periods taught in blocks of 3/4 and a double lesson.

History is very popular at Gunnersbury with 10 GCSE with A level groups.

Resources and Facilities

The History Department currently has a suite of 4 well equipped rooms and a dedicated office. Each teaching room has interactive whiteboards. We also have a specialist History base in the Sixth Form Centre. The department has a large and varied collection of resources and videos. We organise a wide variety of trips and extra-curricular activities, including trips to the First World War Battle Fields, The Normandy Beaches and Eastern Europe.

The School

Gunnersbury is a Voluntary Aided School for Catholic boys. It takes six forms of entry at 11+ and is administered by a Board of Governors acting under the trusteeship of the Archdiocese of Westminster. The annual intake is 184 pupils and the total number of pupils on roll is 1180, including a Sixth Form of 224 boys and 48 girls. We achieved outstanding in all categories of our last Ofsted Inspection in May 2009. The school regularly achieves excellent examination results. In 2016 89% of year 11 pupils gained at least five GCSEs at A*- C, including English and Maths. Our 'Progress 8' score for this cohort was +0.56. As such we are ranked within the Top 5 Boys' Comprehensive Schools for GCSE in the country. Similarly we achieve excellent results at A- level. Our last Ofsted (2009) determined our provision to be outstanding.

The school was founded in 1919 by Fr William Roche, became a Voluntary Aided Grammar School in 1932, took its first comprehensive intake in 1972, became Grant Maintained in April 1993 and returned to Voluntary Aided in September 1999. It has been designated a Specialist School in September 2003. Since then we have been awarded a further specialism, Leading Edge, whilst also achieving High Performance Specialist Status.

Although located in the London Borough of Hounslow, Gunnersbury considers itself a Diocesan School and draws from a wide catchment area consisting mainly of the London Boroughs of Hounslow, Ealing and Richmond, but some pupils attend from even further afield coming from Central London, Brent, Hillingdon, Spelthorne and Harrow.

The Catholic character of the school is an essential and important part of school life. It is made explicit not just in the religious education programme and shared values but in the liturgical life of the school. There is a voluntary mass on Fridays and important feast days together with family liturgies, a retreat programme and Morning Prayer in Advent and Lent. The School Chapel is set-aside as a quiet area for prayer and liturgy.

The school is led by a Headteacher supported by two Deputy Heads within a senior staff of 6. Each member of the Senior Leadership Team is responsible for a distinct pastoral, academic, administrative and policy area of the school. Departments are subject based. The school has a well-developed system of pastoral care, overseen by a Year Head and Form Tutor. High standards of behaviour and dress are expected and the pastoral system aims to promote the development of self-discipline and consideration for others. The School Council meets regularly, chaired by a member of the Sixth Form.

Gunnersbury is always over-subscribed with first choice applications from Catholic pupils. Our mission is to continue to provide these pupils with the very best Catholic education for their lives ahead.
