Information for candidates

Job Description

Results in Religious Education at All Saints' Catholic Academy are good and reflect the hard-work and dedication of both staff and students.

We are seeking to appoint a dedicated and talented teacher to our established and supportive team. This post is offered with a TLR2c, the actual responsibilities will be agreed with the successful candidate, but will include deputising for, and working alongside the Curriculum Leader regarding developments in the Religious Education department, with specific responsibility for Key Stage 4, and will include coaching and mentoring staff, developing strategies and resources in the department and supporting the QA process

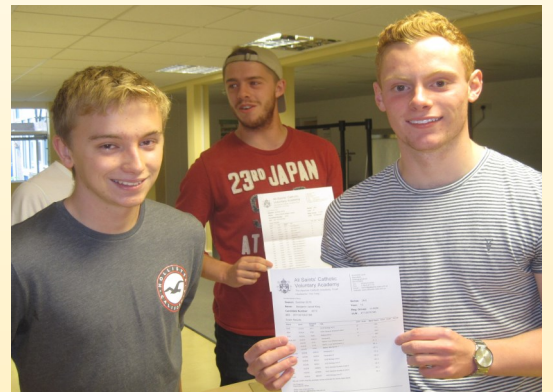

We are looking for an outstanding teacher, or a teacher who has the potential to be outstanding, who has a relevant degree (eg Religious Education/Philosophy) and QTS. The successful applicant must be able to teach Religious Education to GCSE.

We are seeking an applicant who loves teaching, who wants to become an outstanding practitioner and who has a willingness to approach Religious Education in a creative and enthusiastic way. We want someone who can make a real difference to the lives of our students by nurturing in them the desire to develop a deep understanding of the subject.

In our last DCI inspection, in 2015, the department was judged 'outstanding'. Teaching and learning was, and still is, a significant strength. The school's recent Ofsted inspection in March 2017 graded the school as good with outstanding features.

The department has many strengths and we are looking for someone who can enhance these areas whilst at the same time bring new ideas to share.

We have a strong up take at A level and, for a suitable candidate, there could be the opportunity to teach A level.

Groups are set from the beginning of Year 7. In Years 7, 8, and 9 the students are organised into two parallel half-years and setting is within the half-years. From Year 10 we organise students into 7 sets dependant on prior attainment and FTD targets.

Currently Year 11 is following Eduquas GCSE
Year 9 and 10 are following Eduquas GCSE
At A level we follow the Religious Studies OCR

All staff are required to teach across all age and ability ranges with the inclusion of A level where suitable.

We support and encourage staff to be involved in every aspect of the department and are open to new ideas.
