

Lecturer in Public Services (Uniformed Services)

£23,766 - £27,525 per annum (Depending on experience & qualifications)

Full Time

Bishop Burton College is one of the leading land-based Colleges in the UK with strong and sustained growth in student numbers. We provide Further Education and Higher Education at our Campuses at Bishop Burton College near Beverley and at Riseholme College near Lincoln which includes a brand new Showground Campus featuring state of the art teaching environments, engineering workshops, sports facilities, world class laboratories and an industry leading animal management unit. At our Bishop Burton campus we have undergone a multi-million pound campus development programme including significant investment in state of the art teaching and learning facilities, sports facilities, a commercially run farm and an international standard equestrian facility.

Working across both our Beverley and Lincoln campuses, you will be an enthusiastic and highly organised Lecturer in Public Services. Teaching Level 2 and 3 students in Further Education you will work as part of a team to assess, mark and report on students' work as well as managing and maintaining student morale and behaviour. Working within a team, devising and reviewing learning programmes you will be involved in all aspects of teaching and learning.

You will be expected to discuss and share your current knowledge on a range of topics from Leadership and Teamwork to Crime and its Effects. You may also be required to undertake the role of Course Manager as appropriate.

Educated to degree level or equivalent, you will have a minimum of 1 years' industry experience working with the Uniformed Public Services. Evidence of continuous professional development is essential in addition to 1 years teaching or training experience. A teaching qualification is desirable, though not essential as we will support you in your teaching development. Excellent communication and interpersonal skills are also required, with a drive to help people succeed. If you want to see your career develop with an organisation who continually strives for excellence, then we would like to hear from you!
