Executive Principal

It is our pleasure to welcome you to St. Edmund Arrowsmith Catholic Centre for Learning and we thank you for considering becoming our next Principal.

We are incredibly proud of our school community and it is our hope that anyone who joins us will share the same pride.

We are a school community founded upon Christian values and the values which perhaps have most relevance to life in our school include charity, respect, generosity, fairness, forgiveness, compassion, sensitivity and tolerance.

Our teachers all care and genuinely want the best for all students. They go above and beyond to help us with our studies and respect us as the emerging young adults that we are.

We are very proud to represent our school as Head Boy and Head Girl, both within school during assemblies or on duty at lunchtime, and also at whole school events such as the most recent Awards Evening and Celebration of Achievement.

Pupil welfare is exceedingly important which is why we have a large pastoral care support network, from Year Managers and Progress Leaders to pastoral champions, who represent a range of issues.

Our student council is vibrant and it ensures that the voices of our students are heard and contribute to shaping the future of our school.

We would encourage you to visit our school to enable you to meet with us and to talk with our current Executive Principal.

Yours,

Louis Braeger, Head Boy
Chloe Churchill, Head Girl
