WELCOME

Committed to achieving our personal best

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Teacher of History at The Cavendish School. We are seeking to appoint a talented, inspirational and highly motivated leader, to work as part of the proactive History faculty to drive school improvement, and build on the school's many strengths.

This is an exciting time to be joining The Cavendish School as we have already made significant improvements since our last Ofsted, and are on track to join Future Academies Multi-Academy Trust in September 2018. Central to these changes has been a sharpened focus on improving behaviour, underpinned by a concerted drive to ensure that every student feels safe, happy and supported within school through a Character Education Programme. The whole staff team are supportive and committed to school improvement and I am certain that this opportunity will provide you with an exciting and rewarding career opportunity in a school with a bright future.

We hold a commitment to help all students achieve, regardless of their starting points. We are looking for an individual who can play a key role in the next stages of our development, and share our determination to ensure outstanding outcomes for the students at the school. The post holder will have a range of expertise, including an ability to inspire and engage students in their subject. They should have innovative ideas, excellent interpersonal skills and be a team player.

As a member of the school, you will often be representing the wider community, so you will need to be proactive and confident, with a flair for problem solving, although there is always plenty of support available from the rest of the staff team.

This is an important position for us and we are looking for highly talented candidates. If you would like to visit the school to find out more about who we are and what we do then we would be very happy to facilitate that and you can contact my PA, Helen Hardy (h.hardy@cavendish.herts.sch.uk) to arrange a tour.

If you would like to speak to me about the role, then feel free to ring the school and I will return your call as soon as I can - I will be happy to try to answer any questions you may have! In the meantime, thank you once again for your interest in the post and I very much hope that we will be hearing from you soon.

I am determined that each student at The Cavendish School will be able to reflect on their years at the school as being a period of happiness and personal fulfilment. I know that the governing body, teaching and support staff share my commitment in achieving this goal and I look forward to your application if you share my determination.

- Plan and deliver lessons and other learning activities in accordance with the school's Teaching and Learning Policy, ensuring that lessons are based on clear learning objectives.

- Liaise with other colleagues to deliver units of work in a collaborative way and contribute to the production and preparation of schemes of work (this contribution reflecting the post holder's level of responsibility).
- Work closely with teaching and other support assistants in delivering "personalised learning" whenever reasonably possible.
- Set targets for student attainment levels using prior achievement data
- Set work for students absent from lessons in line with the school's behaviour and teaching policies.
- work towards or maintain the teaching standards applicable

c) Assessment and Recording

- Maintain a "teacher planner" as prescribed in the school's policy, including the recording of attainment, homework set, student attendance and outline lesson plans
- Mark and return work (in line with the school's marking and assessment policy) on a regular basis in line with faculty policy. Marking should include feedback for improvement and progress for each student.
- Provide assessment reports when periodically required within the school's assessment cycle and additional "round robin" reports when specifically requested.
- Ensure that suitably differentiated material and learning pathways are provided to challenge all students at the appropriate level, regardless of their ability.
- Assist the Curriculum Leader in carrying out suitable evaluation and analysis of examination results and performance at the beginning of the academic year and agreeing corrective actions resulting from the evaluation and analysis
- Liaise with parents on students' progress using the school diary system, letters, telephone calls and consultation evenings where reasonable and appropriate.
- Work within the code of practice relating to special educational needs.

The duties outlined in this job description reflect and develop those covered by the latest School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document which is available from the Headteacher. This job description may be modified by the Headteacher, with your agreement, to reflect or anticipate changes which are commensurate with the salary and job title.

There are plentiful opportunities for the right candidate to flourish and grow as part of the Science department at The Cavendish School.

The History Department at The Cavendish School

Head of History: Caroline Hardingham c.hardingham@cavendish.herts.sch.uk

The History department is a vibrant and dynamic team within the Humanities Faculty. We pride ourselves on high standards of Teaching and Learning and having high expectations of student behaviour and progress. Staff work collaboratively and cohesively to plan and deliver academically rigorous, knowledge-rich lessons that will engage and challenge our students. Crucially, we are committed to embedding and developing critical thinking skills and academic independence across all key stages, enabling students to succeed not only in their examinations but also beyond their academic careers.

We currently deliver GCSE History with AQA. At GCSE, students study the following units:

1. Germany, 1890–1945: Democracy and dictatorship
2. Conflict and Tension, 1918–1939
3. Britain: Health and the people (1000-present)
4. Norman England, c1066–c1100

At A Level, students currently follow the Edexcel specification, studying option 1B (England 1509-1603, authority, nation and religion), 2B.2 (The Dutch Revolt, 1563-1609) and 39.1 (Civil Rights and Race Relations in the USA, 1850-2009). We also currently offer Politics at AS Level.

Staff in the Humanities Faculty work as a team in its approaches to planning and practice. The new member of staff would be expected to be an active member of the team, responsible for delivering and sharing a high standard of teaching and learning. The new member of the faculty needs to be flexible in their approach and committed to bringing out the best in all students.

Safer Recruitment at Future Academies

Future Academies is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We undertake very thorough checks to ensure that we meet our obligations to protect the children attending our schools. We expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment and to undergo appropriate checks, including an Enhanced DBS and barred list check. We also ensure teaching staff are not subject to a prohibition order or an interim prohibition order.

1. Candidates should be aware that all posts at Future Academies involve some degree of responsibility for safeguarding children and young people, although the extent of that responsibility will vary depending on the nature of the post. All members of staff will have access to the DfE Keeping Children Safe in Education guidance, July, 2015.
2. Longlisted candidates will be required to complete a Disclosure of Criminal Record form and bring the completed form to interview. If the job involves contact with children up to age 8 you will also be required to make a Disqualification Declaration. The information you give will be treated as strictly confidential. Disclosure of a conviction, caution, warning or reprimand will not automatically disqualify you from consideration. Any offence will only be taken into consideration if it is one which would make you unsuitable for the type of work you are applying for. However, offences relating to children may make you unsuitable since this is a “regulated position” under the Criminal Justice & Courts Services Act 2000.
3. If you are currently working with children, on either a paid or voluntary basis, your current employer will be asked about disciplinary offences, including those related to children or young people (whether the disciplinary sanction is current or time-expired), and whether you have been the subject of any child protection allegations or concerns and if so the outcome of any investigation or disciplinary proceedings. If you are not currently working with children, but have done in the past, that previous employer will be asked about these issues.
4. You should be aware that provision of false information is an offence and could result in the application being rejected or summary dismissal if the applicant has been selected, and possible referral to the police and/or Independent Safeguarding Authority.

Invitation to Interview – please bring with you:

- Disclosure of Criminal Record, or Disqualification Declaration form in a sealed envelope. This form will be sent to candidates invited to interview.
- Documentary evidence of identity that will satisfy DBS requirements such as a current UK Photo card driving license and/or a current passport and/or a full birth certificate
- Documentary proof of address (i.e. utility bill, financial statement etc.)
- Where appropriate any documentation evidencing a change of name
- Original certificates confirming any educational or professional qualifications that are necessary or relevant for the post
- Evidence that you have the right to work in the UK

Please note that originals of the above are necessary. Photocopies are not sufficient.

Candidates will be asked to account for any gaps in their employment history and to address any discrepancies or anomalies in their application form. We will require information in accordance with statutory guidance for anyone who has worked or been resident overseas in the previous five years.

We will seek references on longlisted candidates and may approach previous employers for information to verify particular experience or qualifications before interview.

The Cavendish School – The area

There area has fantastic transport links, including a main line station direct into Euston. It is a 28-minute walk from the station to the school, or there is a taxi rank right outside and 5 min journey by car. There is ample free parking on-site.

The M1 and A41 have junctions in Hemel Hempstead and the nearest M25 junction is Kings Langley.
