The school is committed to continued progress and high standards and is energetic about children's learning and development.

Our behaviour policy is underpinned by The Three Rights:

Everybody at our school has the right to learn
Everybody at our school has the right to be respected
Everybody at our school has the right to be safe

Bridlington is in the middle of a major Regeneration plan for the town centre and many initiatives have improved the town in recent years with many more planned.

The surrounding coastline and countryside of East Riding of Yorkshire provides many opportunities to enhance our children's learning.
