Life at Haileybury

Haileybury is an outstanding British independent co-educational boarding school. We offer modern boarding and day provision for eight hundred boys and girls aged 11–18. Established in 1862, we are situated on a glorious, historic 500 acre campus in Hertfordshire, just 20 miles north of London and 35 miles south of Cambridge.

Ours is a happy, purposeful and tight-knit community where more than 90% of the teaching staff live in College accommodation, either on campus or within walking distance of our beautiful site. This helps create a unique atmosphere in which to work.

We focus on creating a warm, nurturing environment which is particularly evident in the Lower School, a “school within a school” for Years 7 and 8, which includes its own Boarding House, Highfield. Boarders and day pupils join one of 12 houses when they enter the main school (Years 9 to 13). This creates strong “family” groups of about 55 pupils per House.

An appreciation of the wider life of a seven-day-week boarding school is a prerequisite for a successful career at Haileybury, along with a willingness to immerse oneself in the boarding and co-curricular programme. The three aspects to every full-time teaching role are: teaching, tutoring in a Boarding House and involvement in co-curricular and sports activities. Teaching staff are also expected to attend Chapel services.

- The College provides a welcoming, vibrant community whether you are a young, single NQT or more established professional with or without a family, you will find your niche.
- The College puts great emphasis on excellent CPD and career development opportunities with regular internal training, and opportunities to pursue further training outside of the College.
- There is a vibrant sporting community with opportunities to join staff sports teams and use our world class facilities
- There is also the opportunity for great music making for musicians of all abilities and opportunities to be included in concerts
- The vast majority of members of the teaching staff live on site and thus avoid commuting
- Member of the teaching staff are part of a wider Haileybury family which comprises our sister schools in Kazakhstan, our alumni and Haileybury Turnford, a local state maintained academy sponsored by Haileybury
- There is easy access to all the academic, cultural, social, sporting and retail facilities on offer in London and Cambridge.

Curriculum and results

At Haileybury, we encourage academic excellence and promote intellectual curiosity. A combination of a robust, creative curriculum, inspirational teaching and an atmosphere in which the progress of every pupil is important, ensures that the learning at Haileybury is of the very highest quality.

We are an academically selective school, providing a wide range of (I)GCSEs and in the Sixth Form a choice of A Level or the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma. Our all-round pastoral care extends to pupils and staff alike and is underpinned by our open, embracing Christian ethos that welcomes equally those of faith and no faith. This nurturing environment, together with extensive co-curricular activities, creates confident individuals, with leadership, team and social skills. We deliver what many schools only promise, a truly holistic education in which our pupils are prepared for university and life beyond as global citizens.

Haileybury combines excellent scholarship with forward-looking teaching. In pupils and teachers alike, our aim is to nurture a love of learning and a desire to explore new ideas. In so doing we prepare pupils to develop academically and to achieve at their highest level. Their endeavours are supported by outstanding facilities, study resources and enrichment opportunities.

We offer a broad curriculum where pupils study for (I)GCSEs, and either A Level or the International Baccalaureate Diploma. We also provide a dedicated Lower School for years 7 and 8 and our innovative curriculum is built on the twin principles of subject-specific knowledge, and wider application of this knowledge through project based work.

In summer 2017 Haileybury pupils excelled in their (I)GCSE results, achieving 63.7% at A* to A, with 35% of all grades awarded at A*. For the third year running, a top set of Year 10 pupils sat their Maths IGCSE exam a year early and all obtained an A*. IB Diploma results in 2017 were once again strong with our IB graduates achieving a collective provisional average score of 36.35 points out of a possible 45 (the global average score is 29.95 points). A Level results for 2017 were also excellent with 67.3% of all grades awarded at A* to B, while 12.6% of A Level pupils across all subjects achieved A*s.

Our pupils traditionally gain places at Oxbridge, Russell Group universities and leading international universities in Europe, the Far East and the USA.

The Department

Staffing

History is one of the most popular and successful subjects at Haileybury. As of January 2018 there are eight people teaching History. The current department is a strong team with a good blend of youth and experience. Five of the department have reduced timetables as they hold senior responsibilities in the school. Our ethos within the department is to engage and interest pupils, and to inspire them to love the subject in the same way that we, as teachers do.

Curriculum

History is one of the core subjects in the Lower School (Years 7 to 8) and the Removes (Year 9). The course in Years 7 to 9 closely follows the National Curriculum. Year 7 study Medieval England. Year 8 move from a study of the Stuarts to colonialism. In year 9 the pupils study the First World War Battlefields in the autumn term and move on to study 1920s USA in the remaining terms. The department also regularly runs trips further afield. There is an annual trip to Alabama and Georgia, following the Civil Rights trail, and there is a trip to Berlin.

History is an extremely popular option at GCSE Level. Pupils follow the Edexcel IGCSE course. On average c. 90 pupils take History as an option in year 10 out of a year group of 130. There is also a strong uptake at A level, with c. 100 students currently taking History in Years 12 and 13, at either A level or within the IB Diploma. The Department offers both a Modern and Early Modern A level course (Edexcel). All GCSE and 6th form teaching takes place in mixed ability classes. These contain approximately 18-20 pupils at GCSE level and c. 10 pupils at A Level/IB Diploma level.

Examination results in the department are consistently very strong, and compare very favourably with other subjects in the College. The department sees great success with the IB Diploma course with an average point score of 6.0 - 6.5 in recent years, at both Higher and Standard level. Our A Level results are among the best in the College. Our Value Added profile is also consistently strong.

The department promotes the study of History and related subjects at degree level and prepares pupils for competitive universities such as Oxford and Cambridge. In the sixth form there is an extension History Group, which acts as a platform for Oxbridge preparation. Pupils are encouraged to take part in external prizes and to develop their interests beyond the confines of the specifications.

The department considers that enjoyment of the subjects is just as important as results. A good rapport exists between pupils and staff and is highly valued by both.

Facilities

The department occupies a dedicated suite of rooms in the Form Room Block of the College. The department is very well stocked in terms of its resources. There is a wide selection of books and academic journals and magazines available, and also a DVD/Video collection of over 500 titles. For each course there is an established scheme of work with accompanying resources. There are computers, data projectors and interactive whiteboards in all five of the History classrooms. In addition, the College library has a particularly extensive History section that is constantly updated. The department also has its own office, with desk space. We also have a website for pupils, and a Twitter account aimed at pupils, parents, and the wider community. A History Newsletter is published regularly.
