- To have the necessary experience, ability and drive.
- Be a team player
- A colleague who will fulfil the expectations in the key areas of responsibility set out above.
- Strong communication and team-working skills.
- A sense of humour, adaptability and the capacity to inspire confidence in pupils, parents and colleagues and a real love of teaching the young is vital. A can do attitude.
- A colleague who is wholly committed to the safeguarding, welfare and protection of children at Gatehouse School, and to its ethos of pastoral care.

We would be delighted to welcome applications from colleagues currently working in the maintained sector and from experienced primary or secondary teachers, although experience of teaching primary-aged children is highly beneficial. Understanding our high expectations, a commitment to working hard and clear evidence that you are committed to developing PE at our school are crucial.

You need not have worked in a prep school before, but you do need to understand and have empathy with the ethos and spirit of independent education where subject specialist teaching is provided. You will also need to fully support the ethos of our inclusive, non-selective school.
