Class Teachers

Do you have a keen interest in teaching and learning and keen to develop in a team where theory is put into practice?

Do you have a particular curriculum area of interest which you would like to develop in a creative and exciting federation?

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR:

The Soaring Skies federation are seeking to appoint experienced Class Teachers who have:

- have consistently high expectations, seeking high achievement for children regardless of their starting point;
- are innovative, nurturing and approachable, able to model professional and school values;
- have the ability to build relationships with parents, other schools and the wider community;
- are able to effectively adapt to changing circumstances, maintaining a high level of performance;

We are a federation of two primary schools in Hackney (Colvestone & Thomas Fairchild Community School) we have a clear vision and passion for education. We are committed to high quality provision for all our children and believe that creativity is at the heart of education. Join us in exploring what learning can be like and help us develop the most exciting learning community.

We are looking to appoint dedicated and enthusiastic teachers who will share our vision for education and support and lead the school into the future.
