

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

QES is set in a stunning location between the Lakes and the Dales, just outside the small market town of Kirkby Lonsdale

Click here for more Snapshots of life at QES

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

QES is an 11-18, co-ed, non-denominational, all-ability school with 1,390 pupils, of whom over 280 are in the Sixth Form

Click here for more Snapshots of life at QES

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Our local popularity is founded upon high quality teaching and learning combined with a reputation for a friendly, relaxed yet purposeful atmosphere

Click here for more Snapshots of life at QES

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Our school community is founded on a set of 'Core Values' that underpin the life and work of the school and promote our very strong sense of community

Click here for our QES Core Values \(PDF\)

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Our site is a unique mix of old and new buildings, such as the Victorian Springfield House with its award-winning extension for our Sixth Form common room

Click here for our Twitter feed for QES Sixth Form

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Staff turnover is exceptionally low and levels of expertise, as well as morale, are high, with teachers enjoying very positive relationships with pupils

Click here for our showcase of Art Exhibitions at QES

A group of young people are captured in a moment of intense excitement at what appears to be a concert or festival. They are all cheering with their mouths open and hands raised high in the air. The scene is dimly lit, with warm, golden light illuminating the subjects, creating a sense of energy and movement. The background is dark, with some blurred lights and structures visible, suggesting an outdoor or large indoor venue. The overall mood is one of joy and collective celebration.

Click here for the QES Music Library and click here for a showcase of some recent drama productions

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Extra-curricular activities are central to life at QES, such as the D of E Award that encourages scores & scores of our students to get out on the local fells

Click here for more Snapshots of the D Of E Bronze Expedition in 2017

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

In both boys' and girls' sport we also have enviable success and aim to compete with schools of all types across the region, nationally and even internationally

Click here for the QES Sports website

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Trips are another integral part of our school year, with regular destinations including Spain, France, Germany and Malawi in line with our core value of 'global citizenship'

Click these links for more photos of recent QES trips: Provence, Berlin, Barcelona and Malawi.

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Our facilities for teaching and learning are continually expanding, with the latest additions including a new technology building plus a huge new sports centre

Click here for more Snapshots of life at QES

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Our recent expansion also included the launch in September of QESstudio, to provide high quality professional, technical & vocational learning to 14-18 year-olds

Click here for the website for QESstudio

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Our community ethos is especially seen at the end of the school year, with Sports Day being the first of two long-standing landmark events involving all students & staff

Click here for more photos from our Sports Day in July 2017

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES

Our second landmark event is a Sponsored Walk, when everyone takes to the local fells to mark a hugely enjoyable – if rather tiring – end to our school year!

Click here for more Snapshots of our Sponsored Walk in July 2017

Queen Elizabeth School

Snapshots of Life at QES