Job purpose

Do you believe that History is the most important subject on the school curriculum? If you do, this is probably the job for you.

As Head of History you will contribute to developing Phoenix Academy into a great school by teaching a challenging History curriculum, enabling all students to fall in love with the study and practice of History, teaching highly effective sequences of lessons, and constantly reflecting on your practice.

A Future Academies teacher is:

- Passionate about their subject and have excellent academic qualifications and thorough subject knowledge.
- Aligned with our educational vision and committed to a knowledge-led curriculum, with high ambitions for pupil attainment and in the central role of the teacher as expert.
- Able to combine academic rigour and achievement with enjoyment of the subject.
- Committed to providing a high standard of pastoral care.
- Equipped to deliver strong classroom management.
- An inspirational leader, with the capacity to develop excellence in others.
- A good communicator, with outstanding planning and organisational skills and the ability to unify and motivate a team.
- Committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.
- Committed to wider school life and be willing to engage in a range of extra-curricular activities.

We can offer you:

- * Free access to our leisure centre which includes a swimming pool, fitness suite and dance studio
- * Free breakfast and lunch each day
- * The opportunity to work with enthusiastic and happy pupils
- * The chance to help rapidly improve the most important school in London
- * Excellent CPD focused on outstanding teaching and learning
- * Access to the Trust Future Leaders programme and multiple leadership development opportunities
- * The expertise and support of senior leadership and colleagues across the Future Academies Trust
- * An area well served by public transport, plus ample car parking on site
