Drama Teacher

Salary: Inner London Teachers' Pay Spine

Required for September 2018

Closing date for applications is 12 noon-Friday 27th April 2018

Are you an outstanding Drama teacher who is ambitious, positive and committed to ensuring that students achieve great outcomes? Are you looking for the next step in your career? This post is suitable for an experienced teacher or a newly qualified teacher who is able to inspire young students to develop their enquiry skills and build a firm understanding in the Drama department in a nurturing environment by promoting high aspiration.

In return you will receive high quality support and CPD from expert colleagues who will coach and guide you through your professional development. This is an ideal opportunity to work in a friendly and supportive environment within a state of the art and well-resourced school.

The successful applicant will have a proven track record of success and display ambition for all members of the school community.

Application packs are available on request from:
