Position Summary:	The Teacher of Computing reports to the Head of Computing, Mr David Lynn, and is expected to teach a full timetable of up to 48 periods (55 minutes each) in a 10 day cycle. This department of highly motivated and experienced staff teaches throughout the Senior School (Years 7 – 13) and expectations are high. The department enjoys outstanding results at IGCSE, AS and A Level where it currently offers courses in both ICT and Computer Science. As a result of the increasing size of the school population and popularity of Computer Science at IGCSE and A-level, we are seeking a Computing and ICT teacher to help deliver the Computing curriculum from Key Stage 3 through to A-level, including ICT and Computer Science courses at GCSE. Experience of teaching Computer Science and/or ICT at A-level would be an advantage. We will be phasing out ICT as an examination subject from August 2018 so experience of teaching Computer Science or a willingness to develop expertise in this subject up to A level is essential. Candidates should be willing to bring innovation, passion and a love of Computing to an already inspired department. The candidate's work ethic must be exemplary. The candidate should also have a willingness to be a reflective practitioner who could further enhance teaching and learning in the school.
General:	Shrewsbury is one of South East Asia's outstanding international schools, with enrolment of 1700 students from Early Years to Sixth Form, exceptional examination results and particular strengths in the creative arts, design and sport. The school itself enjoys a delightful and spectacular setting, right on the banks of the Chao Phraya River in the heart of Bangkok. The school is readily accessed by road and boats, which provide an easy and quick link to Bangkok's Skytrain and the city centre. The link with Shrewsbury School UK (www.shrewsbury.org.uk) is taken very seriously and, year-on-year, develops into a world-class educational partnership.
Candidate Profile:	The successful candidate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • will be a well-qualified Computer specialist; • will be a dedicated, highly motivated teacher capable of inspiring students;

- will have a full working knowledge of the English National Curriculum and an ability and aspiration to attain the highest standards;
- will have either experience of working with English Language Learners (ELL) or a desire to broaden his / her experience and skills in EAL teaching and learning strategies;
- will have a flexible approach to working within the school curriculum and structures;
- will have demonstrated an appreciation of the value of the extra-curricular dimension in developing the potential of students;
- will have excellent interpersonal skills and a positive approach to professional development, particularly in the areas of EAL and ICT;
- will be internationally minded;
- will have the ability to work within and apply all school policies e.g. behaviour management, child protection, Health and Safety, Equal Opportunities etc;

Child
Safeguarding:

Shrewsbury International School is committed to Safeguarding and Child Protection promoting the welfare of children. The successful candidate will be required to

- attend in-house Child Safeguarding programmes
- promote and safeguard the welfare of all students in the school
- report to the Child Protection Officer any concerns they have for the welfare of a student. This may include unsafe practices witnessed within the school as outlined in the school's Speak Out (Whistleblowing) Policy.
- keep professional relationships with students where personal boundaries are respected and maintained
- seek advice from a Line Manager or Child Protection Officer with issues or concerns related to Child Safeguarding.

- Requirements:
- Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service Check (DBS) prior to the start of contract.
 - Formal proof of identity with photo ID (Original Driving License / Passport).
 - 2 signed, confidential references (one of which will be from the candidate's current headteacher) before the start of contract.
 - Verification of original qualifications.
