

HABERDASHERS' ASKE'S FEDERATION

Executive Principal, Haberdashers' Aske's Hatcham College

Full Time, permanent to start September 2018

As a result of the promotion of the current post-holder within the multi-academy trust we have an exciting opportunity for an ambitious school leader to join the leadership team of our multi-academy trust and to lead an Outstanding all-through cluster of schools in south-east London.

Hatcham College is a large 3-18 school of 1832 with 351 in the sixth form. It has been inspected in 2008, 2011 and 2014 and has retained its outstanding status in each inspection. In 2013 we opened Hatcham Temple Grove Free School to increase our Hatcham primary phase which was itself judged outstanding at its first inspection in 2015.

This post is suitable for someone who already has experience as a principal or headteacher and wishes to extend their experience in a different setting, or an outstanding vice-principal or deputy head who is able to demonstrate their suitability for the role.

Are you:

- Passionate about providing the best opportunities for children and young people?
- An excellent teacher with a track record of achievement?
- A leader of vision, drive and tenacity who can inspire a whole community?
- An effective manager who can ensure your vision is realised?

We can offer:

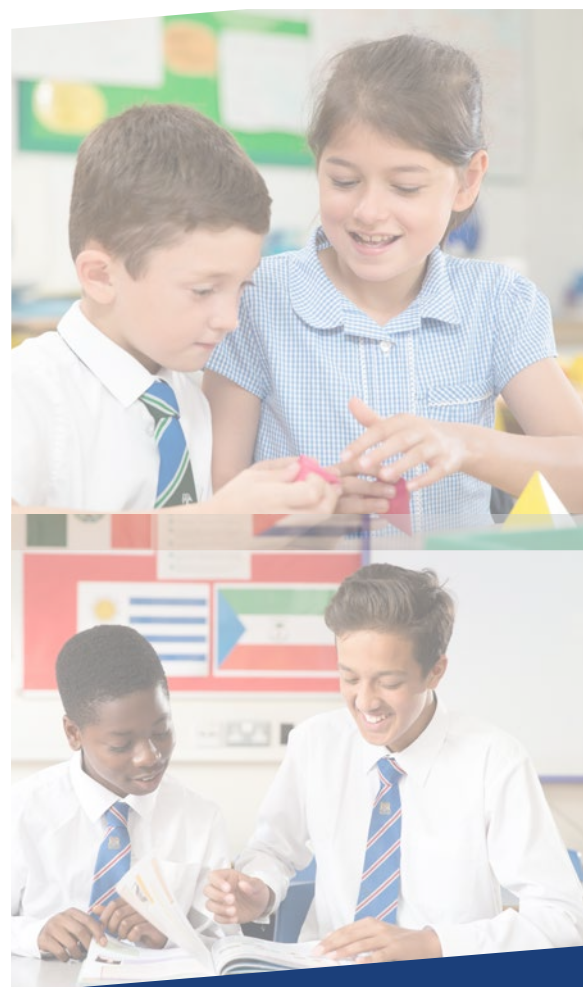

- The opportunity to lead a large, outstanding all-through school
- An exciting role leading an innovative Federation of schools
- The opportunity to make a real difference to lives of children and young people
- Excellent opportunities to develop your skills as an executive leader in a multi-academy trust.
