

Teacher of Food Technology - Person Specification

		Measured By
Personal Qualities, Qualifications and Experience		Essential	Desirable	Application	Interview Process	Reference
Qualifications and Training
1	Degree or equivalent	✓		✓
2	Qualified teacher status	✓		✓
Personal Qualities
1	A perceptive understanding of young people their needs and expectations	✓		✓	✓	✓
2	Commitment to the principles of inclusion	✓		✓	✓
3	Approachable	✓			✓	✓
4	Committed to collaborative working, trust and team building with staff, students and the community	✓		✓	✓
5	Ability to inspire and motivate		✓		✓	✓
6	Good communicator, with good standards of literacy.	✓		✓	✓
7	Reflective and clear-headed thinker who makes considered judgements		✓		✓	✓
8	Resilient	✓			✓	✓
9	Enthusiasm, stamina and the ability to work hard	✓		✓	✓	✓
10	Adaptability to changing circumstances and new ideas	✓			✓	✓
Experience
1	Evidence of consistently good (or outstanding) teaching	✓		✓	✓	✓
2	A track record of contributing to extra-curricular activities	✓		✓		✓
3	Experience of GCSE/ Vocational Food Technology Teaching	✓		✓

		Measured By
Personal Qualities, Qualifications and Experience		Essential	Desirable	Application	Interview Process	Reference
Teaching and Learning
1	Strong classroom teacher with a proven record of exam success	✓			✓	✓
2	Aware of the use of data to inform targeted interventions for students		✓	✓	✓
3	Able to manage systems and resources effectively on a day-to-day basis	✓		✓	✓
4	Committed to the need for continued professional development.	✓		✓	✓
5	Has high expectations of behaviour securely established in lessons	✓			✓	✓
6	Has a secure knowledge of Food Technology which results in high levels of student engagement	✓			✓	✓
7	Demonstrates knowledge and understanding of how students learn and how this impacts on teaching.	✓		✓	✓
8	Awareness of the role of form tutor in the development of young people.		✓		✓
9	Full commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people	✓		✓	✓	✓
10	A clear understanding of the statutory requirements of Health and Safety within practical environments	✓		✓	✓	✓