

Headteacher, Thailand

Job Details

Employer RBIS Rasami British International School

Location Bangkok

Contract Type Full Time

Contract Term Fixed Term

Required from August 2018

Salary Undisclosed

We are proud to educate students from 2 to 18 years in a stimulating and caring environment. We are committed to school improvement and quality. The school is fully accredited by Education Development Trust (EDT), UK. Taken an extract from the report 'RBIS ensures that pupils achieve well and that their personal development is outstanding. Pupils have excellent attitudes to learning.'

We are looking for an exceptional leader who can inspire and lead our team of qualified and committed teachers to the next stage of school development. This is an opportunity for you to take pride in leading the school to further improve the school performance.

This is an excellent opportunity for an inspiring and dynamic leader with a clear vision to steer the school forward. You will have to be someone who welcomes new challenges with positive attitudes.

The successful candidate must meet the following criteria:

- Experience with the British Curriculum and up to date with knowledge. A good understanding of Curriculum Development across the phases
- Experience in an international school would be a distinct advantage
- NPQH would be a distinct advantage
- An ability to work to budgets
- Leadership experience with proven track record
- Experience in taking a school through the accreditation processes
- Ability to relate to people at all levels

All applicants ,please send your CV and covering letter to recruitment@rbis.ac.th

For further information about the school, please visit www.rbis.ac.th