

Person Specification

- Essential to have the ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a team and to present to parents, students and colleagues a warm, engaging and approachable personality.
- Essential and reliable and respectful at all times.
- Essential to have a university degree and teaching qualification from a recognised academic institution that would enable him or her to teach in the U.K.
- Essential to have at least 2 years' experience teaching the National Curriculum or EYFS in the UK or a British International School
- Essential to have a distinguished record of teaching, flexible and adaptable to the varied demands of working in a premier school, showing the capacity for creativity and innovation across and beyond the curriculum.
- Essential to have a strong record of professional development and able to demonstrate a positive and proactive attitude towards participation in CPD and the school's appraisal processes.
- Essential to be able to work successfully under pressure with excellent organisational skills
- Essential to be a confident and competent user of IT in the classroom and for administrative purposes
- Essential to be proactive in all aspects of school life through participation and support.
- Essential to be able to present a professional image in line with the high expectations of Oryx International School
- Desirable to speak more than one language
- Desirable to have experience of teaching in the UK and overseas
- Desirable to have worked in Qatar

For suitable qualified and experienced candidates, leadership responsibility may be available in subject or across subject faculty. It should be expected that responsibilities will be reorganised as the School grows in roll and curriculum in the first 2 years of operation.