

BRIGHTON COLLEGE AL AIN

TEACHER OF ENGLISH WITH HUMANITIES

For August 2018

Closing date: Sunday 29th April (early applications are strongly encouraged)

English is the central part of every pupil's education at Brighton College. As the main language of learning, through which almost all other subjects are taught, its strength is fundamental to success in all subjects, at all levels, for all pupils.

The English Department in the Senior School is characterized by a strong sense of collaboration and the restless pursuit of outstanding pupil progress. Its members strive to ensure that both the curriculum and its delivery offer a rich and diverse range of experiences to both improve and inspire our pupils.

Our vision is to propel pupils of English to rates of progress that are equal to those of the finest schools in the world. The English Department is swiftly becoming a beacon of outstanding progress by creating and developing a culture of excellence in everything it does.

Applications are invited from first rate English practitioners who hold a relevant degree, at least two years of teaching experience and a clear understanding of teaching at Key Stage 3, (I)GCSE and A level. The successful applicant will also be required to deliver Humanities lessons across Key Stage 3. We are looking for someone who blends creativity and rigour in the classroom, is highly committed and possesses excellent organizational and communication skills.

Many of our full-time teachers are also House Tutors. All members of staff are expected to provide extra-curricular activities and will also be required to contribute to the wider community life of Brighton College.

Brighton College offers a highly competitive tax free salary, end-of-service gratuity, free housing and annual flights for the family, medical insurance and free school places for children.

To apply please click on the 'Apply Now' icon on the TES webpage where this vacancy appears. You should complete the application form and attach an up-to-date CV with a covering letter and photograph.

For further information or queries, please contact the Headmaster, Dr. Ken Greig, at headmaster@brightoncollegealain.ae. The closing date for applications is 29th April 2018 but Skype interviews will be arranged as applications are received. The College reserves the right to appoint successful candidates prior to the closing date and so an early application is advantageous.
