Section G - Disclosure and Barring Service

This section will be separated from your application on receipt, kept securely during the recruitment process and destroyed thereafter. It will not be seen by the staff responsible for shortlisting.

As Notre Dame meets the requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, all applicants who are offered employment will be subject to an enhanced disclosure and barring service check before the appointment is confirmed.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offence(s).

Please list details of all criminal convictions or offences below. Please note: Under the rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975, you are required to give details of any convictions, including those which for other provisions are 'spent' under the provisions of the Act. Failure to do so may lead to the offer of appointment being withdrawn or disciplinary action being taken, including summary dismissal. New appointments are subject to satisfactory results from an enhanced check conducted by the Disclosure and Barring Service.

The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

Declaration

Signature of this Application Form indicates that applicants have read the Post Description and any other information issued to them relating to the vacancy and can comply with its requirements. In addition it indicates that all information given by the applicant is accurate. All offers of employment are made subject to satisfactory references and an enhanced DBS check. It is a condition of employment that all employees respect the Roman Catholic ethos and religious teachings and practices of the College.
