Serving the community of East Stafford and nearby villages, our Academy is an ideal size – not so big that it is impersonal but large enough to offer a wide variety of courses and extra-curricular opportunities.

On 1st October 2011 we proudly became Stafford's first Academy. As a converter Academy, The Weston Road Academy is answerable directly to the Department for Education and has used its freedoms to develop an innovative curriculum and pastoral care system. Inevitably, this document cannot convey the inspiring atmosphere and vibrancy of the Academy and we invite you to visit us to find out first hand, why so many parents choose The Weston Road Academy as the preferred choice for their child's secondary education.

Curriculum

The Weston Road Academy is committed to providing for all of its pupils a broad, balanced and personalised education. The emphasis, in all years, is upon providing pupils with a varied diet of studies across a wide range of subjects. Personalisation is achieved through high quality teaching. Further, corrective literacy and numeracy schemes and 1 to 1 tuition are used to support the literacy and numeracy of those pupils who need this. Small-group English and Maths intervention takes place in years 10 and 11, again for those in need.

In Year 8, pupils are given the opportunity to choose some of their courses to study, in order to pursue particular interests or strengths. At this "Options stage", pupils are guided along a particular pathway according to their own individual strengths and weaknesses, but can ultimately make their own choices. This allows pupils to follow a curriculum which is balanced, stimulating and of interest to them.

Social, Moral, Spiritual and Cultural Education, Citizenship, Literacy, Numeracy, Economic Awareness, Health Education, Internationalism and Careers are delivered across the Curriculum, often in Ethical Studies.

In the Sixth Form we work in collaboration with four other schools in Stafford. This allows pupils to choose from a wide variety of academic and vocational courses.

Job Description

TEACHER OF ENGLISH
Main Scale/UPS
Full-Time Permanent Post
Required September 2018 or earlier if available

Closing Date: 9am Monday 29th January 2018

The Post

We see this as an exciting opportunity for a teacher looking to work in a department that is well organised, well-resourced and enthusiastic about its teaching. There is strong collaborative development of schemes of learning and resources and an excellent team ethos, so the person appointed will be very well supported. Pupils are positive about both language and literature, and eager to learn. Many are of considerable ability.

Candidates who can contribute to the life of the academy outside the classroom are particularly welcome, although our principal aim is always to appoint effective classroom practitioners with a passion for their subject. We will be operating a comprehensive programme of professional support and development.

Job Description

The minimum requirements for teachers' practice and conduct are described in the Teachers' Standards document published by the Department for Education in 2011. In particular, English teachers at Weston Road are responsible to the Subject Leader and Headteacher for the following:

- creative use of the agreed schemes of learning and available resources to ensure that all pupils make good progress
- stimulating interest in English across the full ability range through the use of a variety of learning approaches
- regular assessment of pupils' work to diagnose their immediate improvement priorities and their progress towards end of key stage targets
- establishing good expectations of class work and homework, with good behaviour maintained in lessons
- liaison with the Subject Leader and colleagues in the development of teaching strategies and resources.

Person Specification

The successful applicant will be able to demonstrate or give evidence of:

- strong subject knowledge
- good teaching skills and the capacity to stimulate pupils' enthusiasm and ambition
- the ability to teach English to GCSE Level, and possibly English Literature to A Level
- awareness and keenness to exploit developments in English education, including the use of ICT
- good understanding and use of assessment to maximise pupil progress
- the readiness to work as part of a team in the development of learning activities and resources
- the ability to establish in the classroom an orderly atmosphere in which pupils are able to work both independently and in groups as appropriate
- a sincere commitment to comprehensive education and Equal Opportunities
- a positive outlook and belief in the power of education to improve children's lives.

In addition, the readiness and ability to support and take part in extra-curricular activities will be valued. Applicants should include in their application any qualifications or experience they have which would enable them to contribute in this way to academy life.

Selection Procedure

Applicants are asked to send a fully completed application form to the Academy, highlighting any gaps in employment. No other letter or CV is required.

During the selection day, candidates will tour the academy, meet members of the English department, teach a lesson, and take part in an interview discussion. The appointment decision will take account only of the application form and these activities. References will be used to confirm the decision. No unofficial soundings will be asked for or considered in the selection process.

The Weston Road Academy is strongly committed to safeguarding and promoting pupil welfare and expects all employees to share this commitment. The successful candidate will therefore need to undertake a List 99 and criminal record check via the DBS and provide references to cover a full three year period.

The English Department

The successful candidate will join a strong and committed team of teachers. Drive and determination are essential qualities, as we are a busy and forward-looking department, wanting to build on our strengths and to broaden our capabilities. We are supportive of each other and often work collaboratively. Professional development opportunities have allowed us to liaise with other schools and to undertake additional training with exam boards. We are committed to mentoring students and together we form a team of specialists with complementary areas of interest.

As a department, we have good relationships with our pupils who are very positive about English. They enjoy the diverse and challenging nature of their learning and appreciate the regular and constructive feedback, which allows them to progress.

Guiding pupils towards becoming both informed, independent readers and thoughtful, creative writers, a five-year curriculum approach is taken, teaching English Language and English Literature as separate subjects and allowing pupils to develop and secure essential skills in Speaking and Listening, Reading and Writing. Edexcel is our GCSE Exam Board and at A Level, the AQA English Literature A syllabus is followed. Theatre trips, visiting authors and subject-based Enrichment Days help to engage pupils and enhance the curriculum.

English lessons are taught in a suite of rooms on the first floor, where there is also an open area used to facilitate group and support work. This area is also the site of the department office. Teachers are issued with laptops and there are interactive whiteboards in all of our six classrooms. We have software to support learning, encourage an enjoyment of reading and improve literacy skills. Ideas, expertise and resources, which support our flexible but detailed schemes of work, are shared and year planners are followed.

The academy operates a 30 period week, with lessons of 50 minutes. Pupils are taught in sets, either in half-year or full-year blocking from Year 8 onwards. Whether to support a particular learning need or to stretch and challenge, identified pupils often work with our subject specific Teaching Assistant in a classroom designed for this provision. At both GCSE and A Level, results are consistently good and are reflective of the high standard of teaching across the department.
