

Southern International School

Special Educational Needs / Early Years teacher

Person Specification:

- Essential qualities will include the ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a team and to present to parents, pupils and colleagues a warm, engaging and approachable personality.
- Reliable and respectful at all times.
- Fluent speaker of English
- A university degree and teaching qualification. Ideally the candidate will have at least 2 years' experience working with SEN children.
- Experience of working in an international school would be an advantage but not essential.
- Experience of working with the International Primary Curriculum is desirable but not essential. Training will be provided.
- An excellent classroom practitioner in Early Years teaching.
- A proactive attitude towards participation in CPD and the school's performance management /appraisal processes.
- Able to work successfully under pressure with excellent organisational skills.
- A confident and competent user of IT in the classroom and for administrative purposes.
- Enthusiastic and passionate about education with a sound understanding of best practice in SEN.
- Proactive in all aspects of school life through participation and support.
- Able to present a professional image in line with the high expectations of SIH.