PERIPATETIC MUSIC TEACHER – UPPER STRINGS Up to five hours per week

Self-employed rates depending on experience

Up to 7 years	£21.49 per hour
From 7 to 10 years	£22.63 per hour
10 years plus	£24.86 per hour

We require a Peripatetic Music Teacher to join our Music Department to provide high quality tuition in Violin and Viola to students. There is a strong tradition of instrumental playing at the school. Over 100 students regularly play in bands and other ensembles and many more take instrumental lessons. This is a part-time position during school term-time. The successful applicant would be expected to work flexibly and be part of an enthusiastic team.

Drayton Manor is a heavily oversubscribed and successful school. Student achievement is high with a value added score at A Level placing us in the top 12% of schools nationally and 50% of GCSE students achieving the English Baccalaureate. We are very proud of our ethos.

This school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to apply for an enhanced disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). Further information can be found at www.homeoffice.gov.uk

For further information and an application pack, please visit the Job Vacancy section of the school's website. For any other queries, please contact the school's Human Resources Department on 020 8357 5604.

The closing date is 12 noon, Tuesday 26 June 2018.
