

Lecturer in Equine Science Fixed Term until July 2019

£25,010 - £27,525 per annum (depending on qualifications & experience)
Full Time

Bishop Burton College is one of the leading land-based Colleges in the UK with strong and sustained growth in student numbers. We provide Further Education and Higher Education at our Campuses at Bishop Burton College near Beverley and at Riseholme College near Lincoln which includes a brand new Showground Campus featuring state of the art teaching environments, engineering workshops, sports facilities, world class laboratories and an industry leading animal management unit. At our Bishop Burton campus we have undergone a multi-million pound campus development programme including significant investment in state of the art teaching and learning facilities, sports facilities, a commercially run farm and an international standard equestrian facility.

The Equine department has excellent resources to enhance teaching and learning including a variety of external competitions, water treadmill and spa. We have also been selected to host the prestigious FEI Pony championships in August. As an enthusiastic Equine Science lecturer, you will be teaching Level 4, 5 & 6 students and perhaps some Further Education students, across a variety of Equine related subjects. You will also assess, mark and report on students' work as well as managing and maintaining student morale and behaviour.

Experienced in teaching Further Education and Higher Education students within this subject area, you will have recent industry experience in Equine Management & Science. A related Master's degree is essential alongside evidence of continuous professional development. Equine coaching experience and qualifications would be desirable although not essential. A teaching qualification is also desirable, though not essential, as we will support you in your teaching development.

If you're up for a challenge, possess excellent communication skills and is driven by the desire to help people to succeed, we would like to hear from you!
