

Teacher of Science – Person Specification

Role: To teach Science.

Experience

It is essential that the successful applicant will have:

- Experience of teaching Science at KS3 and KS4
- A record of successful Science teaching or positive placement references

It is desirable that the successful applicant will have:

- Experience of teaching GCSE Science
- An understanding of target setting and tracking

Education and training

The person appointed will:

- Be recognised as a qualified teacher
- Have obtained a degree, or equivalent, in a relevant discipline
- Be committed to his/her ongoing development as a professional teacher Special Abilities and Aptitudes

The principal hopes to appoint someone who can demonstrate their ability to:

- Inspire and motivate young people
- Become a role model for the young people
- Express their passion for Science in the classroom
- Develop good personal relationships with a team
- Use data to maximise student potential
- Create a happy, challenging and effective learning environment
- Establish and develop relationship with parents and carers
- Contribute to the departments extra-curricular activities programme
- Contribute to the school's PSHEE programme

Personal Qualities

The successful applicant will:

- Be a role model in safeguarding the needs of young people
- Be approachable, enthusiastic and imaginative