

Person specification

The essential attributes required for a teacher are:

- appropriate qualifications in your teaching area
- successful experience in KS1 or KS2 as a teacher
- to have a knowledge of child development
- values and respects the needs of children
- demonstrates a commitment to fundamental British values and an awareness of how these can be promoted in direct work with children
- Is resilient and demonstrates an ability to work well under pressure. Manages time effectively
- a commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children
- to be able to show passion and commitment to the teaching of STEM subjects
- the ability to perform effectively the duties outlined in the job description and to meet required standards for the role
- the ability to work well with a wide range of people and be supportive within a team
- the ability to work flexibly and contribute to the smooth running of the school
- respect and value for the different experiences, ideas and backgrounds others can bring to the school
- to be innovative and contribute towards the development of new ideas
- to be willing to work within and contribute to school policies and procedures
- to work towards excellent practice throughout the curriculum
- to accept the need for continuing development and training, particularly in ensuring up-to-date training is undertaken in matters relating to safeguarding children and safety
- a strong record of attendance and punctuality
- the ability to demonstrate a proactive approach in taking responsibility for quality of own work
- confidence and competence in using interactive whiteboards, computers and mobile devices within the curriculum and for administration
- to display a strong loyalty towards the school
- to follow the school ethos