

Vacancy

We are seeking to appoint an inspirational KS4 or KS5 Achievement Coordinator for September who can deliver outstanding pastoral care and secure outstanding outcomes for our students. We want you to inspire students and raise their aspirations across all aspects of their schooling in addition to unlocking their potential in areas that areas to academic and personal success.

To be successful at Fort Pitt, you will:

- Understand the importance of attainment at A*-A
- ensure students in your key stage make outstanding progress
- commit to our supportive but challenging ethos and culture
- thrive on working in teams but be able to work independently
- constantly challenge yourself to become a better practitioner
- be committed to our comprehensive extracurricular and Raising Aspirations programmes

In return, we will offer you:

- a school where all students are keen to learn and achieve
- an incredibly supportive group of colleagues and leaders
- a personalised professional development programme
- fast track promotion opportunities
- a two week October half term
- the chance to perform on a wider stage through our proud membership of FPTA (Fort Pitt Thomas Aveling) Academies
- Flexible working conditions

For an informal conversation about the role, please contact Emma Kelly, Administration Assistant at ekelly@fortpitt.medway.sch.uk in order to arrange a time.

Person Specification

At Fort Pitt, we don't believe in a single, carbon-copy model of what constitutes an excellent member of staff. The best people come in all shapes and sizes. We're looking for a candidate who can bring a breadth of experience and fresh eyes. The following list offers a brief snapshot of the attributes we value. In all cases, we'd be looking for direct examples of how you have embodied these qualities throughout your career along with your potential to move us on and demonstrate excellence:

- Leadership. At every level of school life, we seek people who can take responsibility and shape outcomes for the better, with or without the input of others
- Positivity. Working with children should be a pleasure and a privilege. We expect colleagues to bring a vibrant, can-do approach to their work
- A willingness to learn and improve. Professional development underpins our practice at Fort Pitt. We want colleagues to be receptive to constructive feedback and push themselves (and others) to improve
- Teamwork. This job is about building partnerships and helping others to thrive. We're looking for collegiate, good-natured colleagues with a sense of humour and shared purpose
- Inspiration. A key responsibility of all Fort Pitt colleagues is to inspire students to have a thirst for knowledge and aspire to fulfil their potential

How To Apply

To apply for this role, please complete the school application form and send the Headteacher a letter of no more than two sides of A4 outlining a) why you want the job at this stage of your career and why you would be a suitable candidate b) what you will do to ensure your students make outstanding progress c) how you will inspire our students and raise their aspirations d) how you will ensure you are aware of the barriers to learning in your Key Stage.
