Outline Role: The Ambition Teacher / Tutor position is a vital role within the Ambition Ski Team. Athletes as young as 8 years old join the academy for various weeks throughout the autumn and winter where our job will be to coach them each morning & for them to study each afternoon. Throughout September, the Ambition Teacher / Liaison is expected to communicate with the UK schools to create work planners for each athlete, before implementing that work throughout the season, through teaching lessons & private study whilst communicating back to UK schools and parents. Ambition teachers will be expected to make use of their surroundings to engage the student athletes in the local language and cultures also.

Duties:

- Organizing work planners for each athlete prior to arrival.
- Liaising with ALL athlete parents on educational needs.
- Liaising with ALL athlete schools on educational needs.
- Communicating with head coach and program director on any disciplinary issues.
- Organize school snacks with Haus Tirol (Ambition base) Chef.
- Airport runs to collect or drop off athletes at start or end of training camps.
- Transporting athletes to & from school where required.
- Attending race trips to support athletes whilst away from Ambition base.
- Ensuring athletes are well organized for each school day.
- Potential private study / tutoring 1:1 for athletes needing extra support / study outside of normal academic program hours.

Misc / House specific duties:

- Working as support staff for Ambition organized race events – including helping with set up, commentary, transport etc.
- Laying out and / or clearing away of breakfasts together with Ambition Houseparent.
- Enforcing house ‘rules’ including bed times, wake up times and educating athletes in how to be self-sufficient at the right ages (duty of all staff within Ambition Base).
- Being present during ‘down time’ after meals and free time for athletes to be able to talk about educational needs or extra support required.
- Implement challenges, prizes or incentives for good behavior in school.
- Help to organizing team activities during athletes’ days off.
- Helping to clear daily snow fall at Haus Tirol (All Staff).
- Support other staff generally at both Haus Tirol & Ambition – especially during emergency times. This could include but is not limited to (and is the same for all staff) – emptying bins, passing plates through after dinner, setting tables, wiping tables.
- Communicate with parents about any medical, social or psychological considerations within school.
- Review and learn medical forms prior to camps for each athlete in case of emergency in school.

Remuneration:

- £20 / hour teaching. £10 / hour liaison.
- Season ski pass on agreement of house duties being fulfilled.
- Shared Apartment accommodation (meals including during Ambition program dates only) on agreement of house duties being fulfilled.

Additional:

- Mileage on behalf of the business is to be reimbursed at 0.25€ / mile, minus any fuel bills already paid by the company.
