

Benefits of being an NQT at Wildern

1. Being part of a highly motivated staff team in an outstanding school with a creative buzz within the school which pervades all areas of the curriculum.
2. Being part of a school at the cutting edge of Learning and Teaching where you can contribute to the next steps in its development.
3. Benefiting from a weekly structured programme of training and development delivered by a highly experienced team of staff.
4. Benefiting from the schools commitment to the continued professional development of all staff at all levels.
5. Being in a school where you can concentrate on teaching. The emphasis is on development and learning and teaching - not on behaviour management.
6. Extensive opportunity for career progression and developing your potential, gaining experience and taking the next stage of your career.
7. Early opportunities to make a difference, as distributed leadership is a strength of the school.
8. Access to the latest technology is a key strength of the learning and teaching within the school. Staff have access to leasing their own device to use within school to support new technologies across the school.
