“Inspirational learning creating outstanding futures”

Welcome to Blackpool and The Fylde College

Thank you for your interest in a career at B&FC.

As one of the UK's leading Further Education colleges, B&FC offers high quality technical and professional routes to professional and skilled employment facilitated through strong relationships with industry.

Academic standards at B&FC are consistently rated as amongst the best in the sector. We are judged outstanding by Ofsted and the ESFA's National Success Rate Tables published in both April 2015 and May 2016 show us as the highest performing large college for student success rates. Our Higher Education provision has earned commendations from the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA). B&FC was awarded the Queen's Anniversary Prize for Higher and Further Education in November 2015 in recognition of the College's bespoke professional degree provision, co-created with both regional and national employers.

In September 2016, we were the sixth college in the country to be granted Foundation Degree Awarding Powers. We are a customer centric organisation. We work closely with industry partners to develop their workforce of the future, whilst ensuring our students have the opportunity to secure sustainable employment.

We have invested £33m in learning infrastructure in the last 3 years, with plans to invest a further £18m in the next 2 years. Together with industry partners, we jointly own the National College for Onshore Oil and Gas.

B&FC is a major local employer with 1200 employees. The College has an annual turnover of circa £54m. Over 18 000 students annually choose to study with us and over 1800 employers choose to work with us.

Bev Robinson
Principal and Chief Executive
