

Person Specification (Teacher)

Essential	Desirable
A wide experience of delivering national curriculum subjects across different age groups, subject areas and key stages.	Experience of delivering national curriculum maths and ICT at key stages 1-4
Proven experience of managing challenging behaviour in a classroom environment	Experience of Working in the care sector Experience of working with small groups of 1 to 4 challenging young people
Qualified teacher status
Ability to assess young people's performance against key stage statements
To be able to prepare, deliver and evaluate personal education plans (PEP's) and weekly individual education plans (IEP's)
A working knowledge of ASDAN award schemes (or similar) and an ability to plan deliver and evaluate these programmes
Proven effective management of teaching assistants and learning mentors
Be conversant on Microsoft Office, Open Office Applications
A willingness to contribute towards the development of an integrated curriculum
Current full driving licence
A willingness to undertake relevant training
A commitment to raising standards	