Coleg Llanymddyfri
Llandovery College

Mission

Llandovery College seeks to provide a truly transforming experience in which intellectual, artistic, sporting, spiritual and social development is at the heart. Llandoverians and their parents join a caring community that recognises and nurtures the innate ability in every individual. The College aims to produce grounded young men and women capable of tackling life's challenges with confidence, determination and cheerfulness.

Statement of Principles

Llandovery College's principal activity is the education and pastoral care of its pupils. All of its assets, income and expenditure relate to this activity

Llandovery College is a co-educational school, providing an all-round education that values the individual and their talents

Llandovery College is a school which seeks outstanding academic performance but never at the expense of achieving excellence in other fields

Llandovery College is a distinctly Welsh School, fiercely proud but unpretentious

Llandovery College values service to the community, both within and outside of its walls

Llandovery College believes it is fair to give children a chance to come the school and makes every effort to be accessible to every household income

Llandovery College is a true seven-day a week school with a formidable boarding ethos

Llandovery College has a strong House structure facilitating outstanding pastoral care

Llandovery College respects its rich heritage but is also a school that loves to innovate

Llandovery College is a Christian foundation that values tolerance and respect for all
