Lampton School is a large, mixed, multi-ethnic 11-18 school. We were judged as "Outstanding" in all categories by Ofsted in 2005, 2008, 2013 and 2024. We are the lead school for the London West Alliance, and we are a teacher training partner with the University of Roehampton. We are looking to appoint people with an educational background or an interest in education, to act as examination invigilators in our school. We are aiming to build a regular team; the work will be at various times throughout the year (starting in December), with the main exam season between May and the end of June. Applications are welcome from people with experience, but training will be provided. Excellent communication skills are required.

Working hours will be variable depending on examination requirements, but will normally be between 8.30am and 4.30pm.

Lampton School actively encourages and supports the safeguarding and protection of all its students. This post involves regulated activity in relation to children and as such it is subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure. In accordance with the DfE's Keeping Children Safe in Education 2025 statutory guidance, we will complete a search of publicly available content online relating to any candidate seeking to work at Lampton School.
