Humanities at the West Bridgford School

The Humanities Department at the West Bridgford School brings together the History, Geography and Social Sciences teaching into one coherent team. Under a Head of Department and two other post holders, 15 teachers are grouped within the Humanities section of the main building and 4 specialist rooms in the Post 16 Bradbury Centre. All rooms are equipped with SMART boards and we have our own Humanities Computer Room.

Teachers and Curriculum Managers within these areas share resources and work closely together to deliver highly successful courses. Teaching at KS4 and KS5 is by specialist teachers from each subject, while at KS3 there is a tradition of teachers contributing small amounts of teaching to other subjects within Humanities as necessary.

Social Sciences

In Years 7-9 all students currently have 2 periods of Religious Education per fortnight taught in mixed ability tutor groups, studying a range of issues and questions from a variety of World Religions' perspectives. At KS4 we offer GCSE Philosophy and Ethics and GCSE Sociology. At KS5 students follow AS and A level courses in RE Philosophy, Sociology and Psychology.

Psychology

Psychology (EDEXCEL) is a very popular and thriving subject at A Level, delivered jointly by three specialists. Each is based for all of their Psychology lessons in their own spacious room in the purpose-built Sixth Form Block. Psychology is well established and comprehensively resourced. It has been described as a lead subject within our impressive Sixth Form, regularly achieving some of the school's best A Level results. The three Psychology teachers share resources and work closely together to deliver this highly successful course. A new appointment is sought for September 2018 to replace one of the specialists.

History

In Years 7-9 all students currently have 3 periods of History per fortnight taught in mixed ability tutor groups. The course covers Medieval Realms and the early part of Making of the UK in Year 7; Making of the UK and Native Americas in Year 8; Expansion, Trade and Industry, Black People of the Americas and World Wars I and II in Year 9. At KS4 History is a very popular option choice, with around 70% of the year group choosing to follow the GCSE course next year – the AQA course focusing on Modern World History. At KS5 students follow the AS and A Level course in History. The History team currently consists of 6 teachers, some of which have senior positions within the school.

Geography

In Years 7-9 all students currently have 3 periods of Geography per fortnight taught in mixed ability tutor groups, covering a range of topical geographical issues relevant to young people. At KS4 Geography is an option choice growing in popularity, with around 35% of the year group choosing to follow the GCSE course next year. The course focuses on Extreme Environments and students' place in their local world. At KS5 students follow the AS and A level course in Geography. The Geography team currently consists of 3 teachers.
