CO-EDUCATIONAL DAY SCHOOL

LAMDA Teacher

For January 2024 (or sooner)

Applications are invited for a well-qualified and inspirational LAMDA teacher (self-employed) to start in January 2024, or as soon as possible, at Ibstock Place School, an independent co-educational school in south-west London. The Drama department has excellent facilities, including an industry-standard Theatre, and there are multiple productions and performance opportunities over the academic year. LAMDA is well-established at the school and many pupils take weekly lessons and graded exams.

There is a minimum of 4 hours teaching work available and the preferred teaching days are Monday, Thursday, or Friday. The teaching would be for senior school pupils (from Year 7 up to Year 13). The successful candidate will have a proven record of excellence in preparing pupils for exams. Lessons are taught individually or in pairs and lessons are usually 30 minutes long. The hourly rate is £51.

A completed Ibstock Place application form should be emailed to Mr Nicolas Walker, Head of Expressive Arts, and Mrs Kelly Quick, Director-in-residence, as soon as possible, via email:

The deadline for applications is Monday 27 November.

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.
