

Person specification: Temporary teacher of Computing

	Essential Qualities without which the applicant could not be appointed	Desirable Qualities which may be used to choose between candidates who meet all of our essential criteria
Qualifications /Attainment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Good honours degree in a computer science related subject 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> PGCE or equivalent teaching qualification
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Experience of teaching ICT and computer science at KS3 Experience of teaching computer science at KS4 and KS5 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Experience of teaching programming using python or an alternative high level programming language
Knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strong knowledge base in programming using python Ability to teach computer science theory up to and including A level 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Knowledge of SEN requirements Ability to teach the principles of another high level programming language Experience of teaching the OCR GCSE and/or GCE course(s)
Skills and Personal Competencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Excellent interpersonal skills Excellent communication skills Effective use of assessment for monitoring student progress and providing feedback for improvement Passion for computer science Ability to fully utilise technology available to improve learning Ability to motivate pupils to realise their potential Strong organisational, personal time-management and planning skills Commitment to maintaining the caring and supportive ethos of the school Commitment to the highest standards of education, safeguarding and pastoral care for all pupils 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Commitment to leading or assisting with extra-curricular activities and curriculum enrichment including accompanying school trips Ability to provide developmental support to girls applying to leading universities in Computing