

PARENTS' VIEWS

Parents are important stakeholders in our school. Research has shown that parents make an enormous difference to their child's success in school, at home and in later life.

Some parents of children in Sark School have shared their views about the qualities they wish to see in their new Head of School.

Parents would like the successful candidate to be:

- An outstanding teacher with experience of primary and early secondary, as well as mixed aged teaching
- Someone who is passionate about providing the best education for all, who will excite, inspire, challenge and motivate every pupil and staff member to be the best they can be....someone who will show children that learning is fun.
- Someone who will celebrate each and every success for each and every individual.
- A true professional who is committed to Sark School and is dedicated to raising standards.
- A strong leader who is able to build a strong and dedicated team who will take the school forwards together and implement the changes that are needed.
- A good communicator who is able to work well with the education officials, parents, the community and other stakeholders.
- A strong person who will fight for everything that is best for the school.