Ashton Secondary School: School Profile

Ashton Secondary school is a co-educational, multi-denominational school which supports pupils with a wide range of Additional Support Needs from all over Glasgow City and some neighbouring authorities. The school is housed in purpose built accommodation with spacious grounds and adapted facilities. The school was extensively refurbished and opened in 2015 following the closure of Ashcraig Secondary and Milton Secondary. In addition to well-equipped classrooms and comprehensive teaching facilities for young people with a range of learning needs, there are practical subject areas including art, technical and home economics. The school also has a large games hall, swimming pool, outdoor learning spaces, library, multi-sensory room and open relaxation areas. All of the above is organised into 6 zones, with each reflecting a different learning purpose

Ashton currently has 90 pupils and class groups are small with a maximum of 6 or 8 pupils depending on the complexity of learning needs. Teachers have additional help provided by Support for Learning staff and all classes benefit from their assistance. Daily medical needs of pupils are supported by 3 Health and Wellbeing Assistants.

In addition to Education Staff, the school provides a base for NHS staff including Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy, Speech and Language Therapy and Nursing and working patterns vary within each specialism.

Our Curriculum for Excellence is planned on an individual basis with programs reflecting each pupil's learning pathway, and encompassing a wide spectrum of learning needs and styles. Within both the Broad General Education and Senior Phase, teaching can be Sensory, Experiential, focussed on Communication, or developing higher order levels within a range of subjects such as English, Maths, P.E., Science, Expressive Arts, Technical, Home Economics etc. . For all our pupils, the emphasis is on supporting and encouraging individual success within a nurturing and supportive environment.

The Staff

The planned staffing for August 2017 supports a roll of 105 pupils with an initial anticipated roll of 85 which is likely to increase through the year. The management structure and staffing complement reflect the complexity of pupil support required. Currently The Senior Management team consists of the Head Teacher and 2.6 Depute Head Teachers. There are 4.4 FTE Principal Teachers The teaching staff complement for the school Session 2017 - 2018 is 24.3 FTE.

Partnership

The school has very good links with parents and the wider community. It has an active and supportive Parent Council. The school has a particularly wide range of partnership links which provide young people with the opportunity to have new experiences and tailored activities.

Ashton Secondary is a very stimulating and rewarding environment to teach in for staff committed to the development of young people with significant support needs.
