

PERSON SPECIFICATION

TEACHER OF MATHS and SCIENCE - FARR HIGH SCHOOL

SELECTION CRITERIA	ESSENTIAL (Acceptable levels for effective job performance)
QUALIFICATIONS	Relevant teaching qualification. Registration with General Teaching Council for Scotland.
EXPERIENCE	Good knowledge of subjects and curriculum including Curriculum for Excellence and new qualification structure.
PERSONAL QUALITIES	Committed and highly professional teacher with the flexibility to work in a team setting with other staff. Be self-motivated to organise, prepare and deliver subject teaching as a sole teacher of the subject.
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT	Committed to own professional development through school based development work and externally provided courses.
COMMUNICATION SKILLS	Ability to communicate clearly across a wide range of people – pupils, parents, teaching and support staff.
INTERPERSONAL AND SOCIAL SKILLS	Ability to relate well to young people and to encourage and motivate them to achieve of their best. Ability to use a consultative approach to working with colleagues and parents.
SCHOOL AND HIGHLAND COUNCIL PRIORITIES	Prepared to work towards whole school and departmental aims in a collaborative and participative manner. Ability to contribute to the formulation of whole school and departmental development plans.