School Teacher

Salary: Main Scale

Start Date: 1 September 2023

Hours: Full-Time

Closing date: Monday 19 June 2023

Bigland Green is seeking to recruit a strong teacher for September 2023. Candidates can state their preferred key stage in the application form (e.g. EYFS, KS1 or KS2). The school will be able to accommodate as it has an experienced staff team.

The successful candidate will have a good understanding of the EYFS and the national curriculum, and have the necessary skill set for effective implementation. They will have a good grasp of adapting teaching to ensure that all children/pupils learn more and remember more. They will have a good grasp of how children learn and how to lay a good foundation for core skills. They will have the necessary skills-set to deliver the school curriculum and be a great team player. The post is open to teachers at different stages in their career.

Bigland Green offers:

- Curious children who are eager to learn, and have good support from parents
- Established systems to ensure a good work-life balance for all staff members
- An amazing staff team who are talented and highly motivated to deliver a first-class education to all children/pupils
- A full-time Nursery Officer and a full-time TA in Nursery classes
- A full-time TA in every class in the school and additional LSAs to support pupils with specific needs
- Highly skilled SENCo providing support and guidance across the school
- Specialist TAs to support pupils with 'speech & language' and reading needs
- Modern, spacious building with exceptionally good resources for inside & outside learning, and very good transport links
- Highly experienced and supportive governing body

The Mission of the school is to increase children's life chances. Bigland Green is a great place to learn and grow (for children and for adults).

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will require an enhanced DBS clearance. We are dedicated to equality and valuing diversity.

Potential candidates are welcomed and encouraged to visit the school. Please telephone or email to arrange a visit or an informal conversation with the headteacher.

Qualifications

This post is suitable for a qualified teacher at different stages in their career.

Other qualities

The right candidate will be driven by a moral compass, and be passionate about increasing children's life chances by providing education that helps them to become confident individuals, successful learners and responsible citizens.

The suitable person will be highly aspirational in their approach and thinking, and have a positive impact on others. They will have a clear understanding and experience of inclusion and securing high standards for all pupils. A good understanding of the EYFS and the national curriculum and the expected outcomes for children/pupils is essential.

If you feel that you can contribute to the school's mission and its Learning Vision as a school teacher, then we would like you to make a strong application.

Bigland Green Primary School's mission is to provide teaching and learning that helps children to become:

- confident individuals who enjoy learning, make progress and achieve;
- successful learners who are able to live safe, healthy and fulfilling lives, and;
- responsible citizens who make a positive contribution to society and the world.

The school has identified six steps to achieving its mission. These six steps to success are encapsulated in the school's Learning Vision. All key stakeholders (pupils, staff, parents, governors & volunteers) strive for the full implementation of the Learning Vision.

Bigland Green is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff/volunteers to share this commitment. All offers of employment are subject to an enhanced disclosure and other checks.
