Diverse Academies is a multi-academy trust with a vision to inspire, to raise aspirations and to create brighter tomorrows. Across primary, secondary and special settings, we share a common mission to nurture curiosity, develop wellbeing and empower children and young people to go beyond their aspirations. Together, we believe we can make a difference in our diverse communities, and in the lives of those who learn with us and work with us.

We empower. We respect. We care.

Purpose of the post

To provide professional marketing and communications expertise in the management, development, delivery and evaluation of assigned areas of activity.

To deliver quality communications activity and advice that enhances parental engagement and promotes and protects academy/organisational profile, through events, press, social media and parental communications platforms.

To ensure that all marketing and communications activity takes a customer centric approach based on an understanding of the market.

To create compelling multi-channel marketing campaigns which embrace digital innovation to deliver the best return on investment.

To identify and create compelling, engaging content which is appropriate in tone for all audiences and showcases academy life through effective storytelling.

To support the delivery of internal communications and engagement activities, ensuring staff and students feel part of the Diverse Academies community, instil pride and provide a consistency of message.

To work flexibly and collaboratively within academy business teams and as part of a Trust-wide Communications Function, optimising the available resources to deliver agreed objectives.

To be an ambassador for and the key marketing and communications contact for the academy, and where appropriate represent Diverse Academies in a corporate capacity.

Main duties and responsibilities

- Work closely with the head of marketing and communications, business leads and senior leadership team to assist in the delivery of multi-channel marketing and communications activities, in line with Trust strategic priorities and academy school improvement plans.
- For the designated portfolio, take overall responsibility for the development, delivery and evaluation of multi-channel marketing and communication plans. Provide marketing and communications expertise, championing and promoting the academy brand, including the development of a range of print and digital marketing collateral.
- Establish credibility by providing strategic marketing advice and support, working effectively with stakeholders at all levels across the organisation.
- Identify and develop entrepreneurial and creative solutions to marketing and communications challenges. Translate these into planned activity, taking considered risk in order to innovate.
- Regularly analyse and interpret information such as market data, customer insight and competitor activity. Use this intelligence to provide advice, inform and engage all stakeholders.
- Work closely with teams internally and externally, at all levels, to ensure a coherent and consistent approach is applied to communications, branding and messages, and all understand and agree campaign objectives.
- Effectively manage financial resources and lead on the cost-benefit analysis of marketing and communications activities for your portfolio.
- Create, develop and edit copy, using flair and imagination to turn factual information into compelling copy, tailored by target market and in line with house style and Plain English principles.
- Provide guidance and support for direct parental communications through the effective use and development of the parental communications platform Weduc.
- Produce key recruitment materials including prospectuses, promotional brochures, curriculum and transition materials, ensuring these follow brand guidelines and house style.
- Support academies with key events, such as open evenings, and provide marketing and communications support at these events.
- Organise photoshoots and the production of video content, working to brand expectations and guidelines.
- Maintain and update the academy and Trust websites using a content management system, adhering to web governance principles to maintain the quality and integrity of web content.
- Manage day-to-day social media channels by posting engaging content and stories, and monitoring social media channels to widen stakeholder engagement, ensuring channels are kept updated and social conversations maintained.
- Identify internal and external PR opportunities and manage media relations for GCSE and A Level results days, working with the Head of Marketing and Communications on delivery.

- Promote academy events and stakeholder engagement activities to build profile and reputation with stakeholders.
- Create, develop and edit copy to support internal communications, including staff engagement initiatives.
- Respond professionally to queries from colleagues by sharing responsibility for the monitoring of the marketing email inbox, ensuring queries are dealt with promptly.
- Follow relevant standards, practices and processes in order to support the quality assurance, monitoring and evaluation of marketing activities against objectives.
- Provide consistent and professional expertise in support of the overall marketing and communications strategy.
- Keep up to date with popular culture and trends, be confident in the use of social media and be aware of emergent digital communications platforms.
- Embrace change, support new and collaborative ways of working, and share best practice.
- Represent the Communications Function at all opportunities within your role, understanding the range of skills available, as well the importance of delivering Diverse Academies' strategic aims.
- Ensure the appropriate escalation of issues and areas of concern to the relevant leader.
- Demonstrate a commitment to the ongoing development of yourself and others.

Additional

- We all have a responsibility for providing and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people we are responsible for or come into contact with.
- Collectively, we share and co-develop best practice for the benefit of all our academies.
- We promote the employment of people with disabilities and will make adjustments considered reasonable to the above duties.
- You will have the opportunity to access the very best professional development and therefore may be required to attend, from time to time, training courses, conferences, seminars or other meetings.
- This job description is not an exhaustive list of duties and the post holder will be required to undertake any other reasonable duties discussed and directed by the line manager.
- We empower our colleagues to enable our students and pupils to meet the highest possible standards, and we recognise that all our staff have a role in improving student outcomes.
- The contents and allocation of particular responsibilities and duties may be amended after consultation from time to time as part of a broader structural review.
- We have an established framework of core principles and practice to which all our academies subscribe, which are developed and agreed on in collaboration.
- It is a condition of your employment you are expected to adhere to our policies, procedures and guidelines.
