Job Description and Person Specification

March 2022

Job Title: EAL Teacher

Immediate supervisor: EAL Coordinator

Line Manager: EAL Coordinator

Salary: KFA EAL Teacher Scale (based on qualifications and experiences)

About the School

The King Fahad Academy brings together the best of Islamic education with the best of British education in order to be an exemplary and professional learning community where pupils reap the benefits of a broad, balanced and faith-based education. We are an international school – following the National Curriculum; experience in the national curriculum would be an advantage but this should not discourage any applicant with other relevant experience to apply.

About the Role

King Fahad Academy is looking to recruit a well-qualified and experienced EAL Teacher to join the EAL department. The EAL Teacher is responsible for providing specialized English as an Additional Language instruction to students who are beginners in listening, speaking, reading and writing. Using strategies that combine language, content, critical thinking and cultural understanding, the EAL teacher will introduce EAL learners to basic concepts/vocabulary in various subject areas, assess the needs of EAL pupils and work with administrators and subject teachers to plan appropriate programming and service delivery alternatives for EAL pupils. This is an exciting opportunity for an ambitious teacher to join our growing EAL department. The King Fahad Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment.

Core duties (duties may vary from time to time, but not limited to the following):

Support for EAL pupils

- Support pupils who are absolute/false beginners in English as well as ensure their safety and access to learning

- Establish a good relationship with EAL pupils and being aware of and responding appropriately to individual needs
- Design EAL lessons to cater for pupils' linguistic needs and to ensure that pupils can access all the subjects on offer and achieve their full potential.
- Support to use English to obtain, process, construct, and provide subject matter information in spoken and written form.
- Develop EAL pupils' reading skills by encouraging a reading culture
- Support with the induction of EAL pupils into the school to ease the transition process
- Support and confidence building for those who have most recently arrived in the UK.
- Encourage EAL pupils to interact with others and engage in school activities

Support for the EAL curriculum

- Use EAL practical and interactive teaching methods to improve listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Support EAL pupils to understand instructions and key vocabulary/concepts in mainstream subjects (EAL content-based teaching)
- Work collaboratively and alongside other subject teachers to support academic language learning in the content areas and students meeting outcomes
- Assess the needs of EAL pupils, using appropriate means and conduct formative and summative assessments of pupils' English proficiency
- Support EAL pupils in respect of local and national strategies e.g literacy and numeracy
- Support EAL pupils in using basic ICT as directed

Support for the EAL Department

- Work with the EAL Coordinator to establish an appropriate learning environment
- Provide detailed and regular feedback to the EAL coordinator on pupils' achievement, progress, concerns etc.
- Attend relevant meetings as required
- Participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required

The Academy offers:

- Independent School following the national curriculum.
- Perfect platform for teachers preparing to explore the world in teaching.
- Small class sizes.
- State of the art facilities.
- 10 minutes from Central Line Tube Station.
- Islamic Ethos
- Teaching of Arabic Language

- Specialist teachers for all ages
- CPD in the UK
