Humanities Teacher

Kathmandu International Study Centre (KISC) is a co-educational school which is MSA accredited, and serves more than 200 students aged 4-18, from over 20 countries. It is a school with a Christian ethos, flowing out of its mission, vision and values.

KISC comprises a Primary and Secondary School, as well as a Teacher Training establishment, called EQUIP. Our mission is to provide excellent education, primarily for the international mission community and Nepali school communities, based on KISC values. Through our schools and the EQUIP programme, students and staff are helping to transform children's lives, as well as making a positive impact on wider Nepali society.

POSITION SUMMARY

We are seeking a Humanities Teacher who can teach a range of humanities subjects—such as History, Geography, Global Perspectives, Psychology, Religious Education or Social Studies—according to the school's curriculum and grade-level needs. The teacher will foster curiosity, critical thinking, global awareness, and analytical skills while creating an engaging, student-centred learning environment appropriate for an international context.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Teaching and Learning

- Plan and deliver high-quality lessons in assigned humanities subjects, by developing engaging learning materials
- Use a variety of instructional strategies to support diverse learners and promote inquiry, discussion, and analytical thinking
- Use formative and summative assessments to monitor student progress and adjust instruction accordingly
- Incorporate global issues, intercultural understanding, and real-world perspectives into teaching
- Provide timely and constructive feedback to students and parents to support growth and development
- Contribute to the development, review, and enhancement of the Humanities curriculum
- Ensure curriculum continuity, progression, and alignment across grade levels

Classroom Management & Pastoral Care

- Create a safe, inclusive, respectful learning environment that supports all learners
- Manage classroom behaviour effectively using school policies and restorative approaches
- Provide pastoral support to students and contribute to the school's homeroom programme, if assigned

Professional Responsibilities

- Maintain accurate records of attendance, assessments, and student performance
- Communicate effectively with parents, colleagues, and school leadership
- Commitment to ongoing professional development and continuous improvement in teaching practices
- Participate in staff meetings, school events, and collaborative planning sessions
- Contribute to extracurricular activities such as clubs, competitions, service projects, or field trips
- Uphold the school's mission, values, and safeguarding standards

QUALIFICATION & EXPERIENCE:

Required

- Bachelor's degree in Humanities or a related field
- A teaching qualification / certification
- Experience teaching Humanities subjects in a school setting
- Strong English communication skills (spoken and written)
- Ability to work effectively with students from diverse cultural backgrounds

Preferred

- Familiarity with Cambridge International Curriculum
- Experience teaching multiple humanities disciplines
- Ability to integrate inquiry-based and project-based learning
- Experience with digital learning tools (e.g., Google Workspace, interactive platforms)

PERSONAL QUALITIES

- Passion for teaching and inspiring young people, enabling them to grow and flourish
- Adaptability and creativity in designing instructional activities that promote active learning and engagement
- Desire to raise educational standards in Nepal, and helping to have a transformational impact on wider Nepali society
- Ability to collaborate well within a team
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, organisational and time-management skills
- Ability to build rapport with colleagues and students

SAFEGUARDING STATEMENT

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All staff must adhere to child protection policies and undergo background checks.

If you are ready for a new adventure where students get to experience a wonderful education, this may be the post for you. We look forward to welcoming a passionate and skilled educator to our team, committed to fostering an inclusive and supportive learning environment for all students.

All of our expatriate staff are volunteers. We cover the costs of the visa for the full-time international volunteer (visa post holder) and his/her dependent children who are studying at KISC if required. A benefits package is also provided. If interested in the role, please ask for further information.

How to apply: All qualified and interested applicants are required to send an email with a cover letter and an updated résumé to recruit@kisc.edu.np
Only short-listed candidates will be contacted for an interview. In your covering letter, please explain why you would like to work at KISC.

This job description is designed to outline the main duties and responsibilities of the Humanities teaching role and is not intended to be an exhaustive list. The responsibilities of the position may evolve over time in response to the needs of the school.
