St Paul's Way Trust School, supported by Queen Mary University of London is seeking to appoint an exceptionally talented Reset Room Assistant.

The main purpose of this role is:

- Supervise students who have been internally excluded or faculty parked ensuring high standards of behaviour and promote independent learning.
- To support delivery and evaluation of behaviour routines in Reset Room provision and Faculty Parked.
- To facilitate and support strategies to reduce repeat referrals to provisions
- To ensure that Reset Room Provision and Faculty Parked is equipped and resourced fit for purpose daily, weekly and half termly
- To support and site supervision dependent on the needs of the school

At SPWT we believe in fostering a clear and explicit student culture that is articulated through our character framework and is underpinned by the values of SPWT:

- Integrity
- Aspiration
- Community

We have exceptional standards for all the students in our care as we believe every child has the right to a transformational education. We ensure these standards through:

- A standard of 100% for students achieved through staff modelling

- Silent structured transitions from line up
- Non-negotiable routines across all lessons for example Meet and Greet routines.
- Centralised models of positive recognition and stepped consequences
- Centralised recognition of learners used to nudge norms, including props [Teach Like a Champion: Technique 35 - Doug Lemov]
- Rigorous attendance tracking and support for all students
- A comprehensive data model used to inform our pastoral strategy for intervention and support

As a result, we can offer

- A calm environment to work in
- Students enthusiastic about learning
- Classrooms free of low-level disruption
- Reduced workload through our centralised approach

If you would like to play your part in delivering outstanding provision for our students, whilst receiving the very best support to develop your career, then we would very much like to hear from you.
