Living in Qatar

Surrounded by clear, shallow waters on three coasts, Qatar is one of the smallest Arab states in the Gulf region. Despite this, it has a big heart, huge ambitions, and a reputation for hospitality that reaches far beyond its borders.

Qatar has seen rapid growth and development over the last two decades. Helped by its rich oil and gas reserves, Qatar now has one of the world's highest GDP per capita incomes. Much of the country's progress has been centred on Doha, and there are few signs of this slowing. Lonely Planet articulates the sense of the excitement and energy currently felt in Doha.

Doha has a significant expatriate population, drawn to the City for several reasons:

- Its growing status as a regional economic and industrial centre means there are a range of exciting job opportunities in various sectors such as healthcare, education, financial services, engineering, and hospitality.
- It is complete with all the conveniences and luxuries you would expect to find in a developed western city: international restaurants, luxury shopping malls, coffee shops, well known supermarkets, an efficient health system, five-star hotels, to name but a few.

“Whether it’s the stunning and constantly changing skyline or the massive investment the Qatari authorities are making in landmark cultural icons, this is a city oozing confidence and style, as at ease in its modern shopping malls as in its traditional souqs. Wander the reinvented and fabulously atmospheric Souq Waqif, wonder at the sheer beauty of the world-class Museum of Islamic Art and its exhibits or head out to Katara to explore – wherever you look, Doha is threatening to eclipse Dubai as the Gulf’s most dynamic city. Throw in a new Metro system in the making and the 2022 FIFA World Cup on the horizon, and the chances are that things are only going to get better.”

- Despite being a modern city, Doha retains many traditional elements and, through its world famous museums and cultural centres, is a regional hub for art and music.
- Doha has much to offer for those interested in playing sports and partaking in outdoor pursuits. The beautiful waters of the Persian Gulf offer excellent water sports opportunities and the surrounding desert provides great conditions for pursuits such as dune bugging and quad biking. Furthermore, Doha has invested in several outstanding green park spaces and has some of the finest sports facilities in the world.
- Doha is also a regular venue for professional sporting events. Amongst others, it currently hosts international competitions in tennis, athletics, cycling and squash; attracting leading athletes in all cases. Its reputation as a sporting hub will only be enhanced by the football world cup in 2022 and the national sides recent victory in the AFC Asian Cup.

There is then the rest of the world. Doha's location makes it an amazing point from which to travel the world during the holidays. Incredible destinations in Asia, Africa, Europe and the Middle East are only a short flight away. With Qatar Airways flying direct to over 160 destinations, Doha is truly an excellent staging post.
