This is an exciting opportunity for someone who wants to take on an important leadership role in a highly successful, non-selective, multicultural foundation school. The successful candidate will lead and develop teaching and learning throughout this subject, which is a popular option at A Level and GCSE. The school has an outstanding record of developing middle leaders, career progression and promotion.

We offer:

- Greenford High School is a key member of the Ealing Teaching School Alliance with a long history of offering excellent CPD programmes, collaboration with other schools, personalised coaching
- We have a great record of developing NQTs, training over 30 student teachers each year and partnering Teach First in hosting and delivering CPD for their teachers
- A vibrant, flourishing Post 16 Centre of 530 students, with many A Level classes
- Friendly, dynamic and enthusiastic colleagues
- Excellent modern facilities and interactive technology in a well-resourced, new school, with a new KS3 building and ARP having just opened

Other benefits include: generous non-contact time; smaller class sizes wherever possible; assistance for those taking Masters and further degrees; a partnership with the Institute of Education and Teach First; many colleagues taking Teaching Leaders courses, Future Leaders, NPQML and NPQSL; the opportunity to train and mentor student teachers and Teach First; a dedicated and supportive pastoral team; guaranteed car parking spaces and bicycle storage; shared department workroom; an excellent library; access to sporting facilities and a fitness gym; Workplace Options scheme providing advice and support; staff social events and well-being sessions
