WISHFORD EDUCATION

Wishford Education is an exciting, entrepreneurial organisation, delivering outstanding learning experiences to young people across a range of schools, nurseries and holiday camps. We are constantly seeking to push the boundaries, defy preconceptions and challenge ourselves to be at the leading edge of stimulating, innovative and creative education. We look for fresh and original ways to amplify these messages to parents, children and the wider educational world. We are inspired by high-quality creatives in other industries, and imaginative thinking from within our organisation.

THE OPPORTUNITY

We are seeking an enthusiastic, creative and energetic videographer/photographer, with experience in people photography.

In this role you will travel to our educational settings in Wiltshire and Gloucestershire capturing a range of photographic and video content. You will cover not only our schools and nurseries, but our wider commercial activities as well, such as day camps and summer schools. There is potential for this role to expand to other locations within the group.

You will need to be able to produce high-quality photographs and video, and edit content daily for use in a variety of ways by our marketing teams.

You will need to be able to stay abreast of photography and videography trends, particularly regarding social media.

Experience in photographing children and sport is an advantage. You should be confident and happy to visit new locations within the group and ensure 'your subjects' are comfortable, to allow for high quality content to be produced.

Your position will sit within the group's central marketing team, where you will be working in a tight-knit team collaborating on elements of branding and strategy as they deliver campaigns across the group.

Your time will be split between filming on location at our schools, working in the Corsham office, and working from home.

HOURS & SALARY

Core hours are Monday to Friday, 8:30am-4:30pm, but flexibility is key to this role and regular weekend and evening work will be required (typically one evening/weekend day each week).

This is a full time, permanent role.

Salary: £30,000
