One or more unspent convictions, cautions, bind-overs or pending charges
Please follow the instructions in section 7 (3).

No spent convictions, cautions, or bind-overs

One or more spent convictions, cautions, or bind-overs
Please follow the instructions in section 7 (3).

Please note. Any offer of appointment to the above post(s) will be subject to a satisfactory disclosure from the Criminal Records Bureau.

3. If you have answered yes to either of the questions above, please follow the instructions below:

- On a separate sheet of paper record brief details of the offence(s)
- Record the date and place of judgement and sentence(s) given
- Place the sheet of paper into a sealed envelope and attach to your application form.

The council has a positive policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders, and will not unnecessarily discriminate against those who disclose a criminal record unless it is considered that the conviction makes you unsuitable for employment. In making this decision the council will consider the nature and relevance of the offence, how old you were when it was committed and any other factors which may be relevant.

This information will be treated in strictest confidence and only those directly involved in the recruitment process will have access to the information provided.

Section 8: Prevention and detection of fraud

The council is committed to the highest ethical standards and expects its employees to act with integrity, to be honest and trustworthy and to comply with all laws and regulations which apply to council business.

The council collects information for a variety of local authority purposes including Housing Benefit. The information collected about you may be used for any local authority purpose.

Information on you provided by you or by a third party may be checked with other information held by the council. This information may also be used by the council or supplied to other bodies to prevent or detect crime or protect public funds. Use of information about you and disclosures to anyone outside the council will only be carried out where law permits.

If you have any queries about information held about you, all of which is held under the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998, please contact the Director of Finance at Westminster City Hall, Victoria Street, London SW1E 6QP.

Section 9: Relatives/other interests

Are you related to any councillor or senior officer of the council? Yes No

If yes, please give details on a separate sheet.

Warning – canvassing of or failing to disclose a relationship to a councillor, may disqualify you.

Section 10: Applicant's declaration

I declare that the information that I have provided is true and accurate and in particular that I have not omitted any material facts which may have a bearing on my application. I understand that any subsequent contract of employment with the council will be made on the basis of the information I have provided. I understand that a false declaration which results in my appointment to the council's service will render me liable to dismissal without notice. I give explicit consent that the information which I give on this form may be processed in accordance with the council's registration under the Data Protection Act 1998.

Disability

The council operates an interview guarantee scheme for applicants who declare they have a 'disability' (as defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 & 2005). Any 'disabled' applicant who meets the criteria for the position will be offered an interview. To enable the scheme to operate, managers compiling shortlists will be informed when a candidate has a 'disability'.

Definition of disability

The definition of disability, as outlined in the Disability Discrimination Acts 1995 & 2005 is as follows:

"A physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities".

To be protected under the Acts,

- An individual must have, or have had, an impairment which can be physical or mental
- It must have adverse effects which are substantial, that is something more than minor or trivial
- It needs to be long term, i.e. the impairment has lasted or is likely to last in total for at least twelve months or is likely to last for the rest of the life of the person affected

And

- It must affect day to day activities at work on a regular basis

The effect an impairment may have on day to day activities is defined in the Act as falling within the following categories:-

- Mobility
- Manual dexterity
- Physical co-ordination
- Continence
- Ability to lift, carry or otherwise move everyday objects
- Speech, hearing or eyesight
- Memory or ability to concentrate, learn or understand
- Perception of the risk of physical danger

Some examples now covered by the DDA Acts include: mental illness or mental health problems, learning disabilities, diabetes, epilepsy, cancer, HIV and MS.

Before marking the appropriate box with an 'x' below, please ensure you have read the definition of disability above.

I do consider myself to have a disability as defined by the DDA (as detailed above).

I do not consider myself to have a disability as defined by the DDA (as detailed above).
